Moral Revolution:

Moral Revolution Kris Vallotton, Jason Vallotton, 2012-12-04 Sex Purity Virginity Love Moral Revolution seeks to inspire a culture of love honor and respect with people who walk in purity passion and power This intimate and honest book addresses the root causes of purity issues rather than merely communicating to the masses to abstain from having sex It will call you to a higher standard of living imparting value for your heart and encouraging you to walk in all God has created you to be Many who have given in to the power of peer pressure and the lure of distorted cultural values will find hope and courage to start over again Moral Revolution is written for radical and passionate people who dream of being catalysts to a different kind of sexual revolution one that transforms the way the world views sexuality defines the unborn and embraces the family Join the Moral Revolution

Ontologized Ethics Elvis Imafidon, John Ayotunde Isola Bewaji, 2013-11-21 Ontologized Ethics New Essays in African Meta Ethics examines an often neglected meta ethical issue in African philosophical discourse the extent to which one s orientation of being or idea of what is as an individual or as a group of persons does or should determine one s concept of the good To what extent is ethics or our idea of what is permissible or impermissible grounded on ideas of what fundamentally exists or what it means to be The aim of this collection of essays with emphasis on an African philosophical context will be to establish more firmly and vigorously whether there is an intrinsic link between ontology and morality that is whether and if so how the proper norms for human actions can be explained and validated once we make lucid ideas about metaphysical topics such as human nature community relationality and spirituality The essays included in this volume focus rigorously on ethical issues such as communalism adultery environmental ethics and bioethics with the primary aim of showing whether the link between such issues and metaphysical beliefs is trivial or intrinsic

Tradition and Modernity Kwame Gyekye, 1997-08-28 In this important and pioneering book Kwame Gyekye examines postcolonial African experience from a viewpoint receptive to aspects of both traditional African cultures and Western political and moral theory African people in their attempt to evolve ways of life compatible with an increasingly globalized world cultural intellectual and political scene face a number of unique societal challenges some stemming Gyekye argues from traditional African values and practices others representing the legacy of European colonialism Enlisting Western political and philosophic concepts to clear comparative advantage Gyekye addresses a wide range of concrete problems afflicting postcolonial African states such as ethnicity and nation building the relationship of tradition to modernity the relationship of the nation state to community the nature of political authority and political legitimation political corruption and the threat to traditional moral and social values practices and institutions in the wake of rapid social change With striking flexibility and rare insight Gyekye assesses the value of both traditional and non African cultural components for the future of African societies and proposes alternative social and political models capable of forging a modernity appropriate for Africa The resulting book Tradition and Modernity Philosophical Reflections on the African Experience is a brilliant new contribution to postcolonial theory and will be of deep interest to scholars of political and moral philosophy cultural studies and African philosophy and politics and to anyone else concerned with the efforts of non Western societies to properly modernize

The Moral Revolution of 1688 Dudley W. R. Bahlman, 1968

Philosophy Culture and Vision: African Perspectives Gyekye, Kwame, 2014-05-08 Believing that the intellectual enterprise called philosophy is essentially a part of the cultural as well as historical experience of a people that the concepts and problems that occupy the attention of philosophers placed in different cultural spaces or historical times generally derive directly from those spaces and times and that philosophy in turn has been most relevant to the development of human cultures the Ghanaian philosopher Kwame Gyekye gives reflective attention in this book to some of the concepts and problems that in his view feature most prominently in the contemporary African cultural social political and moral experience Such concepts and problems include the following political legitimacy development culture and the pursuit of science and technology political corruption democracy representation and the politics of inclusion the status of cultural values in national orientation understanding globalization and others It is these topics that are covered in the essays collected in this book The unrelenting pursuit of the speculative activity by the philosopher in most cases eventuates in normative proposals these normative proposals often embody a vision a vision of an ideal human society in terms of its values politics and culture Vision understood here has human not supernatural or divine origination and involvement and requires action by human beings in order for it to come into reality A vision may derive from sustained critical evaluation of a culture or some elements of it Gyekye attempts an articulation of the visions of the essays contained in the book Even though philosophical ideas and concerns are originally inspired by and worked out in a cultural milieu it does not necessarily follow Gyekye strongly believes that the relevance of those ideas and insights is to be tethered to the cultures that produced them For more often than not the relevance of those ideas or at least some of them transcends the confines of their own times and cultures and can be appreciated by other societies or cultures or generational epochs This trans cultural or trans epochal or meta contextual appeal or attraction of philosophical ideas and insights spawned by a particular culture or cluster of cultures or in specific historical times is to be put down to our common human nature including our basic human desires and aspirations Thus most of the essays published here should be of interest to the global community i e to cultures and societies beyond the African
