Moral Tales And Meditations:

Moral Tales and Meditations Michael Joyce,2002-08-01 Novelist cyber theorist and widely acclaimed hypertext fiction writer Michael Joyce weaves an evocative and provocative set of brief essays and short parable like fictions into a compelling collection of meditations on how technology and new media affect our culture and everyday lives Taken together these pieces present a writer s reflections on a life of sudden changes at the edge of an uncertain future They continue Joyce s effort to construct what in previous collections he has called theoretical narratives Here however Joyce turns from reflections to what he terms refractions alluding to the turning or bending a wave undergoes when it passes from one medium into another of different density Through these refractions he formulates an understanding of the wave of change we face as human beings in a multimediated age
