Moral Vision in the Canadian Novel David Joseph Dooley, 1979 Marxism and 20th-Century English-Canadian Novels John Z. Ming Chen, Yuhua Ji, 2015-06-09 This monograph is the first academic work to apply a neo Marxist approach to 20th century Canadian social realist novels pursuing a refreshingly neo Marxist approach to such issues as Bakhtinian notions of the novelistic form and dialogism as applied to Canadian socio political novels influenced by various socialisms socialist feminist concerns economic and sexual politics and the genre of social realism In so doing it demonstrates that Marxist socialism is as relevant today as it was in the 1930s just as social realist novels continue to thrive as a critique of capitalism Readers will find valuable insights into the social significance formal innovations moral sensitivity aesthetic enrichment and ideological complexity of Canadian social realist novels Sex and Violence in the Canadian Novel John Moss, 1977 Canadian Literature in English W. J. Keith, 2006 W J Keith has chosen to ignore utterly both the popular at the one extreme Robert Service Lucy Maud Montgomery as well as the avant garde at the other bpnichol Anne Carson in favour of those authors whose style lends itself to the simple pleasure of reading and to that end Keith dedicates his history to all those including those of the general reading public whose endangered status is much lamented who recognize and celebrate the dance of words Literary History of Canada William H. literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole
