More Stepping Stones To Jewish Christian Relations:

Christian-Jewish Relations Through the Centuries Stanley E. Porter, Brook W. Pearson, 2004-12-19 Christian Jewish relations have had changing fortunes throughout the centuries Occasionally there has been peace and even mutual understanding but usually these relations have been ones of tension often involving recrimination and even violence This volume addresses a number of the major questions that have been at the heart and the periphery of these tenuous relations through the years The volume begins with a number of papers discussing relations as Christianity emerged from and defined itself in terms of Judaism Other papers trace the relations through the intervening years And a number of papers confront issues that have been at the heart of the troubled twentieth century In all these papers address a sensitive yet vital set of issues from a variety of approaches and perspectives becoming in their own way a part of the ongoing dialogue Jews and the Christian Imagination S. Haynes, 1995-03-22 Reluctant Witnesses Jews and the Christian Imagination is an analysis of the ancient Christian myth that casts Jews as a witness people and this myth's presence in contemporary religious discourse It treats diverse products of the Christian imagination including systematic theology works of fiction and popular writings on biblical prophecy The book demonstrates that the witness people myth which was first articulated by Augustine and which determined official attitudes towards Jews in medieval Christendom remains a powerful force in the Christian imagination

A Critical Companion to Mel Gibson Adam Barkman, Antonio Sanna, 2024-02-02 The twelve essays in A Critical Companion to Mel Gibson offer various interpretations of Mel Gibson's work treating this prolific but controversial figure not only as a filmmaker but as a historian religious thinker and social philosopher From The Man Without a Face and Braveheart to The Passion of the Christ Apocalypto and Hacksaw Ridge this interdisciplinary collection mines Gibson's life and oeuvre for insight into existential problems Aristotelian virtues the politics of film interreligious dialogue adaptation issues and much more Confronting Antisemitism from the Perspectives of Christianity, Islam, and Judaism Armin Lange, Kerstin Mayerhofer, Dina Porat, Lawrence H. Schiffman, 2020-10-26 This volume engages with antisemitic stereotypes as religious symbols that express and transmit a belief system of Jew hatred These religious symbols are stored in Christian Muslim and even today's secular cultural and religious memories This volume explores how antisemitic religious symbol systems can play a key role in the construction of group identities Stepping Stones to Further Jewish-Christian Relations Helga B.

Croner, 1985-01-01 Jewish-Christian Encounters Over the Centuries Marvin Perry, Frederick M. Schweitzer, 1994 A fascinating fully accessible collection of Christian Jewish dialogic essays originally read at the conference on title jointly sponsored by Manhattan College and Baruch College CUNY and held in March 1989 Among the topics Jesus was a Jew Judaism and early Christianity in light of the Dead Sea Scrolls Paul the Pharisee medieval perceptions of Jews and Judaism the Jews in Reformation theology racial nationalism and the rise of modern antisemitism and the Holocaust and Christian thought No index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR      God and Humanity in Auschwitz Donald J. Dietrich, 2009-08-01 God and Humanity in Auschwitz synthesizes the findings of research developed over the last thirty years on the rise of anti-Semitism in our civilization Donald J Dietrich sees the Holocaust as a case study of how prejudice has been theologically enculturated He suggests how it may be controlled by reducing aggressive energy before it becomes overwhelming Dietrich studies the recent responses of Christian theologians to the Holocaust and the Jewish theological response to questions concerning God's covenant with Israel which were provoked by Auschwitz Social science has dealt with the psychosocial dynamics that have supported genocide and helps explain how ordinary persons can produce extraordinary evil Dietrich shows how this research combined with theological analyses can help reconfigure theology itself Such an approach may serve to help dissolve anti-Semitism to aid in constructing such positive values as respect for human dignity and to point the way to restricting future outbreaks of genocide God and Humanity in Auschwitz surveys which religious factors created a climate that permitted the Holocaust It also illuminates what social science has to tell us about developing a strategy that when institutionally implemented can channel our energies away from sanctioned murder toward a more compassionate society The book has proven to be an essential resource for theologians sociologists historians and political theorists      Jews and Christians Michał Bron, 1997

Dialogue and Disagreement Ronald Henry Miller, 1989      Christianity and the Wider Ecumenism Peter C. Phan, 1990 How has Christian tradition developed its understanding of the problem of salvation for non-Christians How do the Christian churches appraise the spiritual values of those other religions whose members collectively make up the majority of mankind Christianity and the Wider Ecumenism explores the growing shift from efforts toward unity within Christianity to broader more far-reaching attempts at greater harmony among world religions the wider ecumenism Editor Peter Phan traces the trend back to the Second Vatican Council 1962-65 but notes that in the last ten years or so the movement has become pronounced in addition to Vatican II the World Council of Churches has established a Dialogue with People of Living Faiths and ideologies Also the growing number of courses on campus in comparative religions testifies to the critical importance of interfaith studies and dialogue in our religiously plural world Despite resistance by some Christians to this new trend there is a willingness on the part of others to support the wider ecumenism even to abandon any claim to Christ's Christianity's uniqueness definitiveness absoluteness and superiority They rightly point to the need for faith in God as Absolute Mystery to Christian praxis in favor of justice and freedom and to the enormous historical suffering and conflicts caused by the myth of Christian uniqueness They add that we live today in a world village in which dialogue with other religionists and societies as full equals is imperative perhaps for our very survival Not mere contact but active cooperation and mutual understanding is required now more than ever to deal with urgent global issues involving mass poverty and starvation religious fanaticism the threat to the environment and the omnipresent danger of nuclear destruction These problems are far too important to be left to governments The essays in this volume are the Product of fifty leading scholars from across the Christian spectrum seeking to clarify and to affirm the immense significance of interreligious dialogue for Christianity in our new planetary society

Overcoming Fear Between Jews and Christians James H. Charlesworth, Frank X. Blisard, Jerry L. Gorham, 1993 In this volume a distinguished group of Christian and Jewish scholars including Hugh Anderson Eugene J Fisher Martin Hengel Roland E Murphy Doron Mendels Alan F Segal and Elie Wiesel explore the ancient fear between Christians and Jews from historical sociological theological and personal perspectives

Pilgrimage of Hope Marcus Braybrooke, 1992

Immanuel, 1989

Variations on the Messianic Theme Marion Wyse, 2009 After fifty years the Jewish Christian dialogue has achieved respect and trust but basic disagreement over the Christian designation of Jesus as the Jewish messiah stands Wyse wonders if it is possible to discuss this without annihilating one or the other faith community

Dictionary of the Ecumenical Movement Nicolas Lossky, 2002 The 700 entries in this dictionary have been written by leading figures in the ecumenical movement from all parts of the world Entries are fully cross referenced and many of the articles are enhanced by short bibliographies Entries cover faith and order dialogue mission and evangelism communication church and society theological education institutional histories and relations of Orthodox Protestants and Roman Catholics within the ecumenical movement Biographical sketches outline the contributions of some of the individuals who have furthered the cause of ecumenism in the 20th century Cross references direct the reader to more detailed information or to matters of related interest

Time to Meet Marcus Braybrooke, 1990 Despite statements issued by various Churches in the 1960s 80s e g Nostra Aetate and Ecumenical Considerations on Jewish Christian Dialogue some problems still remain between Christianity and Judaism Analyzes these problems and proposes solutions The Churches must present interpretations of the New Testament which do not abuse other religions Christians must admit that Jesus was a devout practicing Jew and that Judaism is not a petrified religion or a religion of legalism They must not regard Christianity as a superior religion but acknowledge the parity between it and Judaism and cease missionary activities Special attention is drawn to the Holocaust and the specific guilt of Christianity in regard to it and to Christian attitudes to the State of Israel

Jews and Christians, the Contemporary Meeting Arthur Roy Eckardt, 1986
