Reginald,Robert Reginald,2009-11 Science Fiction Fantasy Book Review was founded in 1979 to provide comprehensive coverage of all the major and minor books being released in the genre at that time This was the golden era of SF publishing with a thousand titles old and new hitting the stands and the bookshelves each and every year From the older classics to the newest speculative fiction this was the period when the best and the brightest shined forth their talents SF FBR included reviews by writers in the field by amateur critics and by litt rateurs and University professors Over a thousand books were covered during the single year of publication many of them having been reviewed no where else before or since The January 1980 issue includes a comprehensive index of all the works featured during the preceding year This reprint will be a welcome addition to the literature of science fiction and fantasy criticism Neil Barron is a retired bibliographer and literary critic editor of the acclaimed Anatomy of Wonder series Robert Reginald was the publisher for twenty five years of Borgo Press and has authored over 110 books of his own      More Human Than Human Neil Clarke,2017-11-07 The idea of creating an artificial human is an old one One of the earliest science fictional novels Frankenstein concerned itself primarily with the hubris of creation and one's relationship to one's creator Later versions of this artificial human story and indeed later adaptations of Frankenstein changed the focus to more modernist questions What is the nature of humanity What does it mean to be human These stories continued through the golden age of science fiction with Isaac Asimov's I Robot story cycle and then through post modern iterations from new wave writers like Philip K Dick Today this compelling science fiction trope persists in mass media narratives like Westworld and Ridley Scott's Blade Runner as well as twenty first century science fiction novels like Charles Stross's Saturn's Children and Paolo Bacigalupi's The Windup Girl The short stories in More Human than Human demonstrate the depth and breadth of artificial humanity in contemporary science fiction Issues of passing of what it is to be human of autonomy and slavery and oppression and yes the hubris of creation these ideas have fascinated us for at least two hundred years and this selection of stories demonstrates why it is such an alluring and recurring conceit

Partners in Wonder Eric Leif Davin, 2005-12-07 Partners in Wonder revolutionizes our knowledge of women and early science fiction Contrary to accepted interpretations women fans and writers were a welcome and influential part of pulp science fiction from the birth of the genre Davin finds that at least 203 female authors under their own female names published over a thousand stories in science fiction magazines between 1926 and 1965 This work explores the distinctly different form of science fiction that females produced one that was both more utopian and more empathetic than that of their male counterparts Partners in Wonder presents for the first time a complete bibliography of every story published by women writers in science fiction magazines from 1926 to 1965 and brief biographies on 133 of these women writers It is thus the most comprehensive source of information on early women science fiction writers yet available and of great importance to scholars of women's studies popular culture and English literature as well as science fiction
