Something about the Author Kevin Hile,1997 Contains biographical information and critical essays concerning the works of over 100 authors and illustrators of children s works Horse Power and Magic George Ewart Evans,2012-03-15 The pioneering oral historian George Ewart Evans began to record the farming ways of East Anglia in the 1950s by listening to old men and women whose memories went back more than fifty or sixty years Many were agricultural labourers born before the turn of the century who had worked on farms before the arrival of mechanisation It was assumed at that time that horses would soon disappear from the farms and that this was the last chance of recording the part they had played for centuries It later became clear that this forecast was too pessimistic and in Horse Power and Magic Faber 1979 Ewart Evans describes in fascinating detail some important farms where horses continued to be beneficially used more than thirty years later He discovered that the traditions of the older horsemen had not died out but had been passed on in only slightly attenuated form to a younger generation keen to farm with horses proving that the day of the heavy horse was by no means over He also describes vividly the ways of horse tamers whose skills had a touch of magic about them Taking his works a whole there is no doubt that George Ewart Evans will survive as a fascinating pioneer of the extra academic recording of human history he has found a dimension all his own This is indeed the very stuff of history Sunday Times The Big Picture

,1993 Includes brief references to the portrayal of Aboriginal peoples in films Renegade's Magic Robin Hobb,2009-10-13 The stirring conclusion to The Soldier Son Trilogy the acclaimed epic tale of duty destiny and magic by New York Times bestselling master fantasist Robin Hobb Loyal privileged and brave Nevare Burvelle proudly embraced his preordained role as soldier in the service of the King of Gernia unaware of the strange turns his life would ultimately take Exposed to a plague of enemy sorcery that felled many of his compatriots he prevailed but at a terrible cost to his soul body and heart Now he stands wrongly accused of unspeakable crimes including murder the most heinous of them all Condemned by his brother soldiers and sentenced to death Nevare has no option but to escape Suddenly he is an outcast and a fugitive a hostage to the Speck magic that shackles him to a savage alter ego who would destroy everything Nevare holds dear With nowhere to turn except perhaps to the Speck woman Lisana the enemy whom he loves he is mired in soul rending despair But from out of the darkness comes a bright spark of hope Perhaps somehow the hated magic that has long abused Nevare

can be used by him instead Could he not learn to wield this mighty weapon for his own purposes rather than be enslaved by it But down what perilous road will this desperate new quest lead him And what will be the outcome and the ultimate new incarnation of Nevare Burvelle
