Monumental Propaganda:

Monumental Propaganda Vladimir Voinovich, 2007-12-18 From Vladimir Voinovich one of the great satirists of contemporary Russian literature comes a new comic novel about the absurdity of politics and the place of the individual in the sweep of human events Monumental Propaganda Voinovich's first novel in twelve years centers on Aglaya Stepanovna Revkina a true believer in Stalin who finds herself bewildered and beleaguered in the relative openness of the Khrushchev era She believes her greatest achievement was to have browbeaten her community into building an iron statue of the supreme leader which she moves into her apartment after his death And despite the ebb and flow of political ideology in her provincial town she stubbornly and at all costs centers her life on her private icon Voinovich's humanely comic vision has never been sharper than it is in this hilarious but deeply moving tale equally all seeing about Stalinism the era of Khrushchev and glasnost in the final years of Soviet rule The New York Times Book Review called his classic work The Life Extraordinary Adventures of Private Ivan Chonkin a masterpiece of a new form socialist surrealism the Soviet Catch 22 written by a latter day Gogol In Monumental Propaganda we have the welcome return of a truly singular voice in world literature

pr sentiert Official history is generally understood as state sponsored and ideologically inclined construction of the past which serves certain political aims of mostly non democratic regimes The optimistic believes that it will end up with the collapse of the Soviet Union proved to be rather naive As Pierre Nora argued over the last thirty years we have experienced a general politicization of history the process of transforming what historians produce into an ideology How are the intellectual choices made by historians today influenced by the long twentieth century experiences of Eastern Europe What could official history mean for a stateless nation or a self proclaimed republic How did Ukrainian historiography become or how was it forced to become Soviet What spaces for individual research initiatives or even for modest disagreement with obligatory planned research existed in the official history institutions of Soviet Ukraine and socialist Poland How were Russian textbooks on history re written during the post Soviet years What role do literature film monuments holidays or rituals play in the politics of history How have memories of the Second World War been instrumentalised in the ongoing Russian Ukrainian conflict and how have images of the ongoing war in the Donbas influenced memory debates in neighbouring post Soviet states All those questions are reflected in the interdisciplinary contributions to the volume by scholars from Austria France Germany Great Britain Lithuania Poland Switzerland and Ukraine The majority of research papers were developed within the research project Divided Memories Shared Memories Ukraine Russia Poland 20th 21st centuries An Entangled History supported by the Swiss National Science Foundation at the University of Geneva and were first presented at the conference Official History in Eastern Europe Transregional Perspectives at the German Historical Institute Warsaw in June 2018
