Discovering Psychology Don Hockenbury, Sandra E. Hockenbury, 2016-03-02 Sandra Hockenbury and new coauthor Susan Nolans remarkable textbook is grounded in the belief that all kinds of students can develop a real understanding of psychology and lasting scientific literacy. The authors act on that belief by using relatable personal stories to communicate the concepts of psychological science and the process of science itself and by presenting important research in a clear not oversimplified way. Hockenbury and Nolan also take full advantage of online learning creating activities in LaunchPad that have students thinking about psychology as scientists do. New co author Susan Nolan of Seton Hall University was recently designated a Master Teacher by the Society for Teaching Psychology. She regularly gives talks about incorporating scientific literacy into the introductory course and across the psychology curriculum

Handbook of Preschool Mental Health, First Edition Joan L. Luby, 2006-07-10 This important volume comprehensively explores the development of psychiatric disorders in 2 to 6 year olds detailing how the growing empirical knowledge base may lead to improved interventions for young children and their families. Leading contributors examine advances in the conceptualization and diagnosis of early onset disruptive disorders mood and anxiety disorders eating and sleeping disorders autism and other clinical problems. Promising treatment strategies are described including developmentally specific behavioral and play therapies and available evidence for their effectiveness is presented. The literature on preschool psychopharmacology is also reviewed. Throughout the discussion is grounded in the many recent advances on normative developmental processes in the preschool period. Annual Review of Medicine C. Thomas Caskey, Christopher Austin, James Hoxie, 2002-02.
