Moon Whales:

Moon Whales and Other Moon Poems Ted Hughes,1976 A poet's evocation of animals and plants which live on the moon of his imagination

Moon-whales Ted Hughes,1988 Explores the strange and wonderful moon world The terrain is fantastic its creatures both intriguing and grotesque but all is touched by the Poet Laureate's moon magic

Whale Light Diane Ackerman,2011-05-18 In a rare blend of scientific fact and poetic truth the acclaimed author of A Natural History of the Senses explores the activities of whales penguins bats and crocodilians plunging headlong into nature and coming up with highly entertaining treasures

Ecocritical Perspectives on Children's Texts and Cultures Nina Goga,Lykke

Guanio-Uluru,Bjørg Oddrun Hallås,Aslaug Nyrnes,2018-06-11 This volume presents key contributions to the study of ecocriticism in Nordic children's and YA literary and cultural texts in dialogue with international classics It investigates the extent to which texts for children and young adults reflect current environmental concerns The chapters are grouped into five thematic areas Ethics and Aesthetics Landscape Vegetal Animal and Human and together they explore Nordic representations and a Nordic conception or feeling of nature The textual analyses are complemented with the lived experiences of outdoor learning practices in preschools and schools captured through children's own statements The volume highlights the growing influence of posthumanist theory and the continuing traces of anthropocentric concerns within contemporary children's literature and culture and a non dualistic understanding of nature culture interaction is reflected in the conceptual tool of the volume The Nature in Culture Matrix

Ted Hughes Joanny

Moulin,2005-08-16 This is the first collection of essays to be published since the poet's death Continuing a tradition of more than thirty years of Ted Hughes studies it gathers contributions by most of the major international Hughes scholars voicing their critical preoccupations at the turn of the century Over the years academic criticism on the poetry of Ted Hughes has established some well trodden paths which this collection still strongly reflects however the productions of the latter Hughes in poetry as well as in criticism demand a revisiting of the critical discourse on his work The biographical dimension for instance has gradually gathered momentum and it is no longer possible to study the work of Ted Hughes without due reference to the life and work of Sylvia Plath This book is nonetheless also motivated by the wish to bring some fresh blood to the Hughes studies by politely rocking the boat of a rather comfortably established critical reception that has prided itself on being the mouthpiece of the poet's own ideological discourse For this reason some of the chapters in this collection belong to a continental European tradition that is resolutely foreign to the former partisanships For all that Ted Hughes Alternative Horizons suggests that steering clear of the polemical ruts dug by fans and detractors alike can only benefit the future of scholarly studies devoted to a great poet

Moon-Whales Sofia Reeves-Martin,2016-01-17 Moon Whales inspired by Ted

Hughes and Chris Riddell

Moon-bells and Other Poems Ted Hughes,1986

The Whale, the Moon, and the Stars

Deborah Echerman,2021-04-19 A young whale falls in love with the moon On her quest for love she reaches the most remote corner of earth the Arctic In those cold waters she finds herself alone and disappointed about not finding the moon after so much effort She meets a couple of wise narwhals who teach her that relationships are complicated and sometimes they do not end up the way we want The wise narwhals showed the whale how to find her way back home using the stars as a guide they also took her on a marvellous journey through night sky mythology    Moon by Whale Light Diane Ackerman,1993

Nimrod of the sea William Morris Davis,1874    The Achievement of Ted Hughes Keith M. Sagar,1983    "The" Indians of Cape Flattery James G.
