Harari, 2004 Renaissance military memoirs studied for what they reveal of contemporary attitudes towards war selfhood and identity This is a study of autobiographical writings of Renaissance soldiers It outlines the ways in which they reflect Renaissance cultural political and historical consciousness with a particular focus on conceptions of war history selfhood and identity A vivid picture of Renaissance military life and military mentality emerges which sheds light on the attitude of Renaissance soldiers both towards contemporary historical developments such as the rise of the modern state and towards such issues as comradeship women honor violence and death Comparison with similar medieval and twentieth century material highlights the differences in the Renaissance soldier s understanding of war and of human experience Reconstructing the Native South Melanie Benson Taylor, 2012-01-15 In Reconstructing the Native South Melanie Benson Taylor examines the diverse body of Native American literature in the contemporary U S South literature written by the descendants of tribes who evaded Removal and have maintained ties with their southeastern homelands In so doing Taylor advances a provocative even counterintuitive claim that the U S South and its Native American survivors have far more in common than mere geographical proximity Both cultures have long been haunted by separate histories of loss and nostalgia Taylor contends and the moments when those experiences converge in explicit and startling ways have yet to be investigated by scholars These convergences often bear the scars of protracted colonial antagonism appropriation and segregation and they share preoccupations with land sovereignty tradition dispossession subjugation purity and violence Taylor poses difficult questions in this work In the aftermath of Removal and colonial devastation what remains for Native and non Native southerners to be recovered Is it acceptable to identify an Indian lost cause Is a deep sense of hybridity and intercultural affiliation the only coherent way forward both for the New South and for its oldest inhabitants And in these newly entangled postcolonial environments has global capitalism emerged as the new enemy for the twenty first century Reconstructing the Native South is a compellingly original work that contributes to conversations in Native American southern and transnational American studies Medicine Bags and Dog Tags Al Carroll, 2008 As far back as colonial times Native individuals and communities have fought alongside European and American soldiers against common enemies Medicine Bags and Dog Tags is the story of these Native men and women whose military service has defended ancient homelands perpetuated longstanding warrior traditions and promoted tribal survival and sovereignty Crossing Over Redefining the Scope of Border Studies Antonio Medina-Rivera, Diana Orendi, 2021-02-10 The present volume brings together selected proceedings of the 2005 Cleveland State University Symposium Crossing Over Learning to Navigate the Borderlands of Intercultural Encounters The collection of essays offers some samples of the complex and potentially infinite array of investigations that the newly expanded field of Border Studies can add to the academy's scholarly enterprise. The articles collected in this volume demonstrate innovative approaches to comparative explorations of topics in American, Latin American, European and Post Colonial literature as well as Linguistics, History and Education. The Siren Depths Martha Wells, 2012-12-04 All his life Moon roamed the Three Worlds a solitary wanderer forced to hide his true nature until he was reunited with his own kind the Raksura and found a new life as consort to Jade sister queen of the Indigo Cloud court. But now a rival court has laid claim to him and Jade may or may not be willing to fight for him. Beset by doubts Moon must travel in the company of strangers to a distant realm where he will finally face the forgotten secrets of his past even as an old enemy returns with a vengeance. The Fell a vicious race of shape shifting predators menaces groundlings and Raksura alike. Determined to crossbreed with the Raksura for arcane purposes they are driven by an ancient voice that cries out from The siren depths. The Ultimate Experience Y. Harari, 2008-03-07 For millennia war was viewed as a supreme test. In the period 1750-1850 war became much more than a test it became a secular revelation. This new understanding of war as revelation completely transformed Western war culture revolutionizing politics, the personal experience of war, the status of common soldiers and the tenets of military theory. Carolina Comments, 2003 The North Carolina Historical Review, 2000 "The" Poetical Works of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 1882 Longfellow's poetical works Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 1890 The poetical works Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 1882 Book Review Index Gale Group, Thomson Gale Staff, 1999-09 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books, periodicals, books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular, academic and professional interests.
