Moonlight Garden New Discoveries At The Taj Mahal:

The Moonlight Garden Elizabeth B. Moynihan, 2000

Islamic Gardens and Landscapes D. Fairchild

Ruggles, 2011-12-30 Western admirers have long seen the Islamic garden as an earthly reflection of the paradise said to await the faithful. However, such simplification Ruggles contends, denies the sophistication and diversity of the art form. Islamic Gardens and Landscapes immerses the reader in the world of the architects of the great gardens of the Islamic world from medieval Morocco to contemporary India. Just as Islamic culture is historically dense, sophisticated and complex, so too is the history of its built landscapes. Islamic gardens began from the practical need to organize the surrounding space of human civilization: to tame nature, enhance the earth's yield and create a legible map on which to distribute natural resources. Ruggles follows the evolution of these early farming efforts to their aristocratic apex in famous formal gardens of the Alhambra in Spain and the Taj Mahal in Agra. Whether in a humble city home or a royal courtyard, the garden has several defining characteristics which Ruggles discusses. Most notable is an enclosed space divided into four equal parts surrounding a central design element. The traditional Islamic garden is inwardly focused, usually surrounded by buildings or in the form of a courtyard. Water provides a counterpoint to the portioned green sections. Ranging across poetry, court documents, agronomy manuals and early garden representations, and richly illustrated with pictures and site plans, Islamic Gardens and Landscapes is a book of impressive scope, sure to interest scholars and enthusiasts alike. The Emerging Asian City Vinayak

Bharne, 2013 Asian cities create concomitant imagery, polarizations of poverty and wealth, blurry lines between formality and informality, and stark juxtapositions of ancient historic places with shimmering new skylines. With Asia's re-emergence on the global stage, there is an acute focus on its multifarious urban issues and identities. What are Asian cities going to become? Will they surpass the economic and environmental debacles of the West? This collection of twenty-four essays surveys the most dominant issues shaping the Asian urban landscape today. It offers scholarly reflections and positions on the forces shaping Asian cities and the forces that they in turn are shaping.

Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art & Architecture:

Three-Volume Set Jonathan Bloom, Sheila Blair, 2009-05-14 The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture deals with all aspects of Islamic art and architecture ranging from the Middle East to Central Asia to Southeast Asia and Africa. The volumes cover all subject areas in Islamic art, including artists, rulers, writers, architecture, ceramics, sculpture, metalwork, painting, calligraphy, textiles and more. The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture provides unparalleled scope and depth on this rapidly growing area of interest. It offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as more than 500 plans, maps, diagrams, illustrations and colour plates. Similar in scope and design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts, this three-volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order. The shorter, more factual articles, none shorter than 50 words, are combined with larger, multi-section articles tracing the development of the art forms in various geographical locations. Persimmon, 2001 Out of Water - Design Solutions for Arid Regions Liat
