Moral Matters Mark Dooley, 2015-07-30 Moral Matters A Philosophy of Homecoming is Mark Dooley's attempt to offer an alternative to Cyberia It is a book about home memory and identity At a time when people are rapidly disengaging from those forms of life which once bound them together it can be argued that our happiness depends on saving and conserving them We cannot flourish in isolation or by detaching from the social sphere which surrounds us We cannot truly prosper or progress if we choose to forget where we came from or if we dismiss our inherited moral wisdom And yet in opting for loss separation and homelessness it seems we have done just that We have opted for a rootless existence where alienation and amnesia are the norm This powerful and passionate book shows how the alienated postmodern self can become re rooted to time and place and restored to full humanity and happiness whilst moving in a virtual hyperconnected world In caring for creation conserving culture and saving the sacred we can once again make our home in the world and experience the consolation of moving from loss to love Morality Bernard Gert, 1998 For more than thirty years philosopher Bernard Gert has been developing and refining his distinctive and comprehensive moral theory This book presents the fullest statement yet of his influential theoretical model The Theory of Deliberative Wisdom Eric Racine, 2025-05-13 From a leading ethicist a workable and inspiring model of ethics showing not only why ethics matters but also how it can be used to improve human welfare Humanity faces a multitude of profound challenges at present technological advances environmental changes rising inequality and deep social and political pluralism These transformations raise moral questions questions about how we view ourselves and how we ought to engage with the world in the pursuit of human flourishing In The Theory of Deliberative Wisdom Eric Racine puts forward an original interdisciplinary ethics theory that offers both an explanation of the workings of human morality and a model for deliberation based imaginative processes to tackle moral problems Drawing from a wide array of disciplines such as philosophy psychology sociology political science neuroscience and economics this book offers an engaging account of situated moral agency and of ethical life as the pursuit of human flourishing Moral experience Racine
