Morality For Moderns:

Morality for Moderns Corbin Fowler, 1996 This book defends morality against the critiques of egoism, subjectivism and relativism. It argues that we can and should construe some moral standards as objective and that justice and self development are the cornerstones of healthy morality. Opening with a dialogue meant to tease and provoke the reader, the book's subsequent chapters treat misconceptions about morality, the possibility of unselfish action, the nature of free will and moral responsibility and the identity of moral right and wrong.

Modern Industry in Relation to the Family, Health, Education, Morality Florence Kelley, 2011-07-07 A vivid description of the problems faced by America's urban working class due to rapid industrialisation, first published in 1914.

The Limits of Liberalism Mark T. Mitchell, 2018-11-30 In The Limits of Liberalism Mark T. Mitchell argues that a rejection of tradition is both philosophically incoherent and politically harmful. The Limits of Liberalism identifies why most modern thinkers have denied the essential role of tradition and explains how tradition can be restored to its proper place. Mitchell demonstrates that the rejection of tradition as an epistemic necessity has produced a false conception of the human person, the liberal self, which in turn has produced a false conception of freedom. Together, these false conceptions have facilitated both liberal cosmopolitanism and identity politics. Mitchell uses the philosophies of Michael Oakeshott, Alasdair MacIntyre and Michael Polanyi to construct a compelling argument for a reconstructed view of tradition and, as a result, a reconstructed view of freedom. The Limits of Liberalism reveals that only by finding an alternative to the liberal self can we escape the incoherencies and pathologies inherent therein.

A History of Philosophy: History of modern philosophy Friedrich Ueberweg, 1874 Relations of Rescue : The Search for Female Moral Authority in the American West, 1874-1939 Peggy Pascoe Associate Professor of History, University of Utah, 1990-03-29 In this study of late nineteenth century moral reform, Peggy Pascoe examines four specific cases: a home for Chinese prostitutes in San Francisco, California; a home for polygamous Mormon women in Salt Lake City, Utah; a home for unmarried mothers in Denver, Colorado; and a program for American Indians on the Omaha Reservation in Nebraska. To tell the story of the women who established missionary rescue homes for women in the American West, focusing on two sets of relationships: those between women reformers and their male opponents, and those between women reformers and the various groups of women they sought to shelter. Pascoe traces the gender relations that framed the reformers' search for female moral authority, analyzes the interaction between women reformers and the women who entered the rescue homes, and raises provocative questions about historians' understanding of the dynamics of social feminism, social control, and intercultural relations.

humanists, sociological studies of Carlyle, Mill [and others]. John Mackinnon Robertson,1891 The Modern Review Ramananda Chatterjee,1912 Includes section Reviews and notices of books Ancient Faiths and Modern Thomas Inman,1876 Social Disciplining and Civilising Processes in China Thomas Heberer,2023-08-11 This book argues that a major part of the Chinese government s road map formulated in 2017 to modernise China comprehensively by 2049 is the process of social disciplining It contends that the Chinese state sees that modernisation and modernity encompass not only economic and political administrative change but are also related to the organisation of society in general and the disciplining of this society and its individuals to create people with modernised minds and behaviour and that moreover the Chinese state is aspiring to a modernity with Chinese characteristics The question of modernising by disciplining was extensively dealt with in the twentieth century by leading Western social scientists including Max Weber Norbert Elias and Michel Foucault who argued that disciplining extending from external coercion towards the internalisation of restraints is indispensable for achieving social order and thereby for civilisation but defined from a European perspective in relation to developments in Europe This book therefore not only discusses the Chinese experience of social disciplining but also by looking at a non Western society identifies universal tendencies of societal change and social disciplining and separates them Kostera,Andrzej K. Kozminski,2009-02-04 The Three Faces of Leadership takes readers inside the minds of CEOs who have been celebrated by the Harvard Business Review over the last decade of the twentieth century Drawing on interviews with these famous CEOs Mary Jo Hatch Monika Kostera and Andrzej K Kozminski demonstrate how business leaders today use aesthetics specifically storytelling dramatizing and mythmaking to lead their companies successfully They look at how they inspire organizations through their creativity virtue and faith and thus show the faces of the artist and priest alongside the technical and rational face of the manager The Three Faces of Leadership features clear and accessible explanations of the aesthetic philosophy of management as applied to the concepts of creativity imagination courage virtue inspiration faith and ethics It presents techniques for developing these qualities as an essential part of leadership together with the capacity to communicate them to others Aesthetic leadership practices are linked to organizational culture change vision values and identity In this way the book encourages students and executives to align the creative and spiritual aspects of business with their technical training and practice
