sustain a universally good quality of human life organized around fundamentals of ethics and justice These articles aim to assist us in thinking about the ethical dimensions of the social worlds we inhabit their global contexts and their impact on the natural world They are intended to provide a critical perspective on the current situation to question beliefs and attitudes that are taken for granted and to provide direction in developing and evolving the complex and interconnected array of attitudes policies laws principles practices and the like that are necessary for creating and sustaining a decent quality of life for all These two volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College students Educators Professional practitioners Research personnel and Policy analysts managers and decision makers and NGOs Peace

Through Justice James Brown Scott, 1917 Christian Ethics Non-violent Resistance Approach to Boko Haram Anthony Okechukwu Nnadi PhD STD, 2024-04-10 The book takes a practical look at the complexity of the nature of violence terrorism in Nigeria in the light of the Catholic social teaching on non violent resistance With the critical analyses of some policies strategies used to address the problem of Boko Haram terrorism in Nigeria the book explores a range of questions Does severe punishment work effectively as deterrence against possible involvement in terrorism Does applying lex talionis reduce or exacerbate recidivism What are the right mechanisms to stop terrorism violence in Nigeria This book is convinced that nothing is resolved through violence and that violence begets violence alluding that responding to terror with terror is a retaliatory method that is self defeating On the whole it has been noted that the principle or law of retaliation Lex Talionis alone cannot stop armed insurgency in Nigeria thus the book suggests non violent resistance as the best way to address terrorism and violent conflicts Non violent resistance does not mean condoning violent attacks against innocent civilians Based on the Christian ethical principles of the dignity of the human person and justice this book explicitly declares that the killing of innocent civilians is absolutely immoral The book explores the use of the term Islamic terrorism and the Islamic ethics of justice peace and nonviolence and underlines that the Islamic core moral principles in no way support terrorism While stating that terrorism is morally wrong this book states that the causes of terrorism must be addressed with justice and fairness On this basis the book insists on critically investigating the following religious extremism corruption bigotry in politics and religion the glaring sense of apathy among the political elite to the suffering of the oppressed and the mismanagement and abuse of political positions or the nation's resources for selfish interest There must be a rethink aimed at finding the best way to build an ethical society a framework for justice and peace Teaching Peace as a Matter of Justice Dale T. Snauwaert, 2023-07-07 This book explores the normative dimensions of peace studies and peace education through the lens of moral and political philosophy The purpose is to explore the idea of peace as a matter of justice and to articulate a pedagogical framework for the development and exercise of citizens capacities for moral reasoning and judgment regarding potential responses to the basic questions of justice including resisting injustice The just conditions necessary for peace are contingent upon the informed participation of democratic citizens who are capable of becoming dynamic agents of justice The development of citizens capacity for moral reasoning and judgment is of paramount importance for it constitutes a necessary condition for the realization of justice and peace on all levels of human society from local to global The book will be of interest to both students and all those interested in thinking about peace as a matter of justice
