A More Innocent Time Eugenie Hill, 1985 The Time of Our Lives Siân Lincoln, Yannis Tzioumakis, 2013-03-18 Fans of the movie and students and scholars of cultural performance and film history will appreciate the insight in The Time of Our Lives Reading the Times Randall Stevenson, 2017-11-22 From the Prime Meridian Conference of 1884 to the celebration of the millennium in 2000 from the fiction of Joseph Conrad to the novels of William Gibson and W G Sebald Reading the Times offers fresh insight into modern narrative The Dark Abyss of Time Laurent Olivier, 2024-01-09 The field of archaeology continues to face a major crisis of interpretation The traditional view is that the basic business of archaeology is to reconstruct the history of cultures and civilizations through their material productions Olivier challenges this view with a new approach to archaeological remains based on the works of French theorists such as Foucault de Certeaux and Derrida with insight from Darwin and Freud His thesis is that archaeology does not study the past itself but rather what materially remains of the past in our present Olivier also develops an interpretation of material culture based on Aby Warburg's and Walter Benjamin's work in the anthropology of art With wider implications for history and all social sciences The Dark Abyss of Time is a major contribution to the theory of time memory heritage and archaeology This flawless translation makes Olivier's elegantly written work available in English for the first time Mark Gruenwald and the Star Spangled Symbolism of Captain America, 1985-1995 Jason Olsen, 2021-05-21 From 1985 to 1995 Mark Gruenwald was the head writer for Captain America During this decade Gruenwald wrote some of the most essential stories in Captain America's history and guided the comic through an eventful period of both world history and comic book history This book dissects the influence of the world at large on Gruenwald's stories and the subsequent influence of Gruenwald's work on the world of comics The book's ten chapters discuss a wide range of topics including the generational tensions inherent in a comic about a G I Generation hero written by a baby boomer for an audience of Gen Xers the enduring threat of the Red Skull and the never ending aura of World War II the rising popularity of vigilante characters during the 90s and how Captain America fits into the war on drugs and its just say no mentality Set against the declining American patriotism of the 1980s and 1990s this book places special emphasis on the symbolism of the most American of superheroes Picturing Peter Bogdanovich Peter Tonguette, 2020-07-21 In 1971 Newsweek heralded The Last Picture Show as the most impressive work by a young American director since Citizen Kane Indeed few filmmakers rivaled Peter Bogdanovich's popularity over the next decade Riding the success of What's Up Doc 1972 and Paper Moon 1973 Bogdanovich became a bona fide celebrity making regular appearances in his own movie trailers occasionally hosting late night television shows and publicly advocating for mentors John Ford and Howard Hawks No director of his era surpassed his ability to capture an audience's imagination In Picturing Peter Bogdanovich My Conversations with the New Hollywood Director journalist and critic Peter Tonguette offers a film by film journey through the director's life and work Beginning with a string of 1970s classics Tonguette explores well known films such as Saint Jack 1979 They All Laughed 1981 and Noises Off 1992 as well as the director's work on stage and television Drawing on interviews conducted over sixteen years Tonguette pairs his analysis with an extensive previously unpublished series of Q As with Bogdanovich These exclusive interviews reveal behind the scenes details about the director's life work and future plans Part memoir part biography this book offers a uniquely intimate portrait of one of Hollywood's most underappreciated directors
