More Infant And Toddler Experiences:

Infant and Toddler Experiences Fran Hast,Ann Hollyfield,2002-07-01 What s the difference between an activity and an experience One is meant to pass the time the other to last a lifetime Make the most of your interactions with young children with experiences that allow infants and toddlers to figure out how something works on their own This book describes a process of learning that involves repeated interaction with and exploration of a caring environment which builds trust between children and you Each experience offers children the chance to choose their own approaches to tasks that promote their development Focusing on the Three Cs curiosity connection and coordination each experience is described simply and includes a list of materials that are needed and tips to keep in mind In addition each experience includes specific strategies to help you promote the healthiest development in infants and toddlers

Lived Spaces of Infant-Toddler Education and Care Linda J. Harrison,Jennifer Sumsion,2014-05-05 This book conceptualizes the lived spaces of infant and toddler early education and care settings by bringing together international authors researching within diverse theoretical frameworks It highlights diverse ways of understanding the experiences of very young children by exposing the ways that the authors are grappling with the unknown The work explores broadly the construct and meanings of lived spaces as relational spaces interactional spaces transitional spaces curriculum spaces or pedagogical spaces operating within the social physical and temporal environment of infant toddler education settings The book invites interchange between and among diverse theories and approaches and through this build new understanding of infants and toddlers experiences and interactions in early education and care settings It also considers the implications of this work for policy and practice in infant and toddler education and care

Group Care for Infants, Toddlers, and Twos Deborah J. Norris,Diane M. Horm,2019-10-23 This volume extends the knowledge base supporting research informed child care for infants and toddlers while simultaneously highlighting areas of study ripe for future research The authors demonstrate from a systems perspective that the experiences and outcomes of very young children in child care are influenced by characteristics of and interactions between the children adults and settings Varying methodological approaches as well as the utilization of newer data collection instruments inform the field s understanding of current practices and procedures while offering guidance for future programming and policy In turn the chapters highlight a plethora of open questions and a need for a new generation of research to support the field of infant toddler care Future challenges are evident in the recognition of the inadequate nature of our current measures of child outcomes and classroom processes the field s unmet promise to incorporate interdisciplinary perspectives and the need for newer methodological designs that blend the strengths of quantitative and qualitative approaches These issues are important given the growing demand for infant toddler care and the increasing recognition of the unique role of this age period in serving as the foundation for all later development This book was originally published as a special issue of Early Education and Development

Affective Early Childhood Pedagogy for Infant-Toddlers Gloria Quiñones,Liang Li,Avis

Ridgway,2021-05-18 This exciting new book brings fresh knowledge of affective pedagogies in early childhood education and care The book draws on cultural historical theory in alignment with visual methodologies to elucidate infant toddlers affective pedagogies through analysis of case examples The book reveals contemporary pedagogical practices in the infant toddler space like mealtimes nappy change and play These pedagogical practices show the highly specialised nature of working with infant toddlers such as the affective relations between educators and infant toddlers affective dialogue affective engagement and the creation of affective spaces The value of collaboration is highlighted through creating an affective space for educators to become aware reflect and position themselves as effective and affective educators The book introduces innovative methodological tools such as images and collective drawings for collaborative reflection Inclusive Child Care for Infants and Toddlers Marion O'Brien,1997 This book gives child care providers the practical guidance they need to serve infants and toddlers with and without disabilities in inclusive settings Infant/toddler Caregiving John Ronald Lally,Jay Stewart,Deborah Greenwald,2009 The Oxford Handbook of Infant, Toddler, and Preschool Mental Health Assessment Rebecca DelCarmen-Wiggins,Alice S.
