I love you more than just a friend
Although this may be wrong
My feelings that I have for you
Are real and true and strong

I wont deny the love I have
I cannot tell a lie
I've loved you since we met last year
The days that followed by

I love you still I think of you
Each passing of each day
I yearn to be with you again
To tell you it's okay

I love you more than just a friend
And we may never be Together walking hand in hand
Just you, your love and me

More Poems of Everyday Life Danny L. Noss, 2012-01-05 This is my second book of poems about many things that happen in life I have written these poems from experiences that I have lived things that my friends coworkers and others have passed on to me and things that have just popped out of my head When you are reading this book you will find yourself changing the names in the poems with the name of someone you know I enjoyed bringing the words in these poems to life for your reading I want to thank you for purchasing this book so that I may share my feelings and observations with other people

One Hundred More Poems from the Chinese, 2014-04-10 An assemblage of delicate Chinese verse which delicately explore the worlds of love nature and meditation Love and the Turning Year includes a selection from the Yueh Fu folk songs from the Six Dynasties Period fourth fifth centuries A.D. Most of the songs are simple erotic lyrics Some are attributed to legendary courtesans while others may have been sung at harvest festivals or marriage celebrations In addition to the folk songs Rexroth offers a wide sampling of Chinese verse works by 60 different poets from the third century to our own time Rexroth always translated Chinese poetry as he said solely to please myself And he created with remarkable success English versions which stand as poems in their own right
