The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R.

Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries

The Birth of British Airpower

Peter John Dye,2024-10-15 The Birth of British Airpower describes how Hugh Trenchard a man with few leadership skills became a much loved and inspirational commander who laid the foundation for British airpower on the Western Front in World War I and created the preconditions for the establishment of the world s first independent air service the Royal Air Force Author Peter Dye explores how friendship can overcome significant personal and character deficiencies and how by assembling the right senior leadership team Trenchard achieved greatness The book also examines how the development of airpower doctrine in World War I owed as much to chance as to careful planning and how air superiority was achieved only through sustained effort underpinned by an effective and responsive logistic system Finally it explains how the ethos of the postwar air force was built around these experiences and the collective effort of all those involved in the air war
