Maya Land In Color:

Maya Land in Color, 1978 Maya Color Sally Jean Aberg, 1997 Color and the symbolic ways that the Maya of Mexico and Central America paint their homes places of worship and dwellings for their dead is the focus of this breathtakingly beautiful and achingly poignant new book No one who picks up this volume will ever again think of the region solely for its sunny beaches and ancient ruins nor picture the Maya as a vanished people of the distant past Through dazzling photographs vivid travel tales and the Mayas own poetic voices readers will come to know the modern Maya as remarkable survivors who continue to sow their deified corn commune with their gods and paint life into their color drenched village walls Nearly a decade ago Jeffrey Becom author and photographer of Mediterranean Color turned his attention from the Old World to the New and together with his wife Sally Jean Aberg discovered a realm where color is not merely a matter of preference but a powerful statement of belief Come along as the pair trek through a steamy jungle in search of ancient murals join a highland shaman giving birth to the soul of a house and crisscross the parched Yucatán Peninsula as villagers celebrate the Days of the Dead with dynamite incense flowers rum prayers and paint In the process they discover that the colors of a corn yellow house a blood red altar and a jade green tomb serve as a connective cord stretching back to the painted pyramids Maya Color is a visual and verbal feast New York Times critic Paul Goldberger calls Becoms images poised between the making of art and the documentation of architecture He takes a tiny swath of the vernacular landscape and makes of it a composition with the brilliance and intensity of an abstract painting

Producing Mayaland Claudia Fonseca Alfaro, 2023-04-10 Producing Mayaland Producing Mayaland powerfully captures the extent to which the abstract spaces of global capital are infused with colonial fantasies haunted by uncanny ruins and plagued by monstrous manifestations of ecological breakdown Through a compelling account of the maquiladora industry in the Yucatan Peninsula Claudia Fonseca Alfaro vividly conveys the inextricable entanglements of the capitalist production of space and the colonality of power Japhy Wilson School of Social Sciences University of Manchester UK In Producing Mayaland Claudia Fonseca Alfaro finds a unique voice to narrate the contested relations between everyday life urbanization and the uneven development of capitalism in Motul Yucatán Mexico The remarkable insights of this work emerge from her innovative synthesis of critical urban theory anticolonialism and magical realism all grounded in an imaginative appropriation of Henri Lefebvre's oeuvre on the production of space Kanishka Goonewardena Professor of Geography and Planning University of Toronto Critical urban theory and postcolonial approaches are brought together in this compelling book to explore the relationship between colonial legacies urbanization and global capitalism in southern Mexico Producing Mayaland investigates the boom to bust story of maquiladoras in the state of Yucatán to shed light on how the built environment was shaped by discourse imaginaries and everyday practices In making sense of this social production of space the author examines infrastructure constructed to support the maquiladora project and traces the attempts of the state to portray Yucatán as an exotic and business friendly maquiladora paradise These practices stand in contrast to the livelihood strategies and life stories of maquiladora workers and residents Carefully weaving geography history and ethnography the author draws on a wide range of sources to illustrate a central tension in capitalism its tendency to homogenize while thriving in differentiation With important insights into an understudied location Producing Mayaland urges us to understand urbanization in the global South in new ways Tell-me-why Stories about Color and Sound Carl Harry Claudy,1915 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1984 Skywatchers Anthony F.
