Malled Caitlin Kelly, 2011-04-14 One woman's midcareer misadventures in the absurd world of American retail. After losing her job as a journalist and the security of a good salary Caitlin Kelly was hard up for cash. When she saw that The North Face an upscale outdoor clothing company was hiring at her local mall she went for an interview almost on a whim. Suddenly she found herself middle aged and mid career thrown headfirst into the bizarre alternate reality of the American mall a world of low wage workers selling overpriced goods to well to do customers. At first Kelly found her part time job fun and reaffirming a way to maintain her sanity and sense of self worth.

But she describes how the unexpected physical pressures the unreasonable dictates of a remote corporate bureaucracy and the dead end career path eventually took their toll As she struggled through more than two years at the mall despite surgeries customer abuse and corporate inanity Kelly gained a deeper understanding of the plight of the retail worker In the tradition of Nickel and Dimed Malled challenges our assumptions about the world of retail documenting one woman s struggle to find meaningful work in a broken system New York Magazine ,1987-01-12 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Print-on-Demand Profits Ermalyn
