Bruegel to Rubens Desmond Shawe-Taylor, Jennifer Scott, 2007 Everyone is familiar with the Golden Age of Dutch art this is an opportunity to explore its no less glorious Flemish counterpart It is said that much of the greatest art is produced during periods of strife In the mid 16th century Flanders the United Provinces in the north modern Holland and the Spanish Netherlands in the south modern Belgium was the most sophisticated society in Europe but its learning and luxury industries were all but annihilated by the so called Dutch Revolt and by the Eighty Years War that followed 1568 1648 Two thirds of the works discussed here were painted during this turbulent period including Pieter Bruegel's Massacre of the Innocents of 1567 During the Renaissance the Low Countries attained a flawless technique of painting and the highest standards of craftsmanship This tradition survived during even the worst years of the war

Rubens & Brueghel Anne T. Woollett, Ariane van Suchtelen, 2006 Truly collaborative paintings that is not simply mechanical but also conceptual co productions are rare in the history of art This gorgeously illustrated catalogue explores just such an extraordinary partnership between Antwerp's most eminent painters of the early seventeenth century Peter Paul Rubens 1577 1640 and Jan Brueghel the Elder 1568 1625 Rubens and Brueghel executed approximately twenty five works together between around 1597 and Brueghel's death in 1625. Highly prized and sought after by collectors throughout Europe, the collaborative works of Rubens and Brueghel were distinguished by an extremely high level of quality further enhanced by the status of the artists themselves. Published to coincide with an exhibition at the Getty Museum to be held July 5 to September 24, 2006, the catalogue features twenty-six color plates of such Rubens-Brueghel paintings as The Return from War, The Feast of Achelois, and Madonna and Child in a Garland of Flowers, along with Rubens and Brueghel's collaborations with important contemporaries such as Frans Snyder and Hendrick van Balen. This is the first such publication to fully address and reproduce these works in depth.

Early Netherlandish Painting National Gallery of Art (U.S.), John Oliver Hand, Martha Wolff, 1986. The volume contains entries for paintings in the National Gallery that were produced in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries by artists from the Netherlands. The entries are arranged alphabetically by artist; a short biography and bibliography for each artist is followed by individual entries on the paintings, each in order of acquisition. The authors address traditional questions of attributes and iconography; in addition, they examine the social, economic, and religious context in which the individual work of art functioned. The volume is also probably the first museum catalogue to include the results of examination by infrared reflectography and dendrochronological analysis.
