No Easy Answers Dialog:

Argument as Dialogue Across Difference Jennifer Clifton, 2016-11-25 In the spirit of models of argument starting with inquiry this book starts with a question What might it mean to teach argument in ways that open up spaces for change changes of mind changes of practice and policy changes in ways of talking and relating The author explores teaching argument in ways that take into account the complexities and pluralities young people face as they attempt to enact local and global citizenship with others who may reasonably disagree The focus is foremost on social action the hard hopeful work of finding productive ways forward in contexts where people need to work together across difference to get something worthwhile done Catholicism and Interreligious Dialogue James Heft, 2011-11-21 Each article is followed by a significant response from a member of the non Catholic faith community being addressed and by a response to the response by the author of the article

The Politics of Dialogue Ranabir Samaddar, 2017-07-05 Offering a detailed analysis of post colonial South Asia The Politics of Dialogue discusses the creation and impact of borders and the pervasive tension between the new nations Neither all out war nor complete peace this fragile condition makes political leaders and strategists feel claustrophobic a war produces an end result but peace allows the rulers to carry out their policies for governing along their preferred path of development The book shows how cartographic communal and political lines are not only dividing countries but that they are being replicated within countries creating new visible and invisible internal frontiers It argues that in a situation where geopolitics constrains democracy the political class becomes incapable of coping with the tension between the inside outside eg democracy appears as an internal problem and geopolitics appears as a problem related to the outside

Consciousness Dialogues Peter Ralston, 2018-06-12 Peter Ralston responds to 150 questions about consciousness from a global spectrum of people striving to grasp the nature of their own selves This illuminating collection of 150 questions and responses between Peter Ralston and a global spectrum of seekers provides a rare and nuanced look at the nature of consciousness and the path to understanding our true selves Ralston is the author of the groundbreaking trilogy on the existential foundations of the human condition The Book of Not Knowing Pursuing Consciousness and The Genius of Being Here he has selected inquiries from more than two decades of question and answer exchanges with students as they work their way through his communications The mosaic of viewpoints from an astonishing diversity of real people at all levels of consciousness work yields a narrative that is intricate wide ranging intimate and emotionally honest These dialogues expand our understanding of consciousness test our assumptions and interrogate the very process of inquiry Awareness, Dialogue & Process Gary M.
