Housing Act of 1985 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs. Subcommittee on Housing and Community Development, 1985 Taking Stock of Delinquency Terence P. Thornberry, Marvin D. Krohn, 2006-04-11 Taking Stock in Delinquency is the comprehensive synthesis of the empirical findings of seven important ongoing longitudinal studies of delinquency The seven projects included in this volume represent much of the diversity found in individual based panel studies of antisocial behavior Individually and collectively the results of these investigations have been published in a wide range of disciplinary outlets thus making it difficult to identify common themes and general principles This volume intends to provide a comprehensive and unified picture of empirical results both within these studies and across them One of the fundamental purposes of Taking Stock in Delinquency is to examine the extent to which these studies answer the basic question of the origins of delinquent and criminal careers despite their varying guiding theories methods and settings Taking Stock in Delinquency is an important resource for criminologists psychologists sociologists and upper level students on juvenile delinquency criminology developmental psychology and deviant behavior Biennial Survey of Education 1916-18, 1921 The Diasporic Condition Ghassan Hage, 2021-11-05 Bridging the gap between migration studies and the anthropological tradition Ghassan Hage illustrates that transnationality and its attendant cultural consequences are not necessarily at odds with classic theory In The Diasporic Condition Ghassan Hage engages with the diasporic Lebanese community as a shared lifeworld defining a common cultural milieu that transcends spatial and temporal distance a collective mode of being here termed the diasporic condition Encompassing a complicated transnational terrain Hage's long term ethnography takes us from Mehj and Jalleh in Lebanon to Europe Australia South America and North America analyzing how Lebanese migrants and their families have established themselves in their new homes while remaining socially economically and politically related to Lebanon and to each other At the heart of The Diasporic Condition lies a critical anthropological question How does the study of a particular sociocultural phenomenon expand our knowledge of modes of existing in the world As Hage establishes what he terms the lenticular condition he breaks down the boundaries between us and them here and there showing that this convergent mode of existence increasingly defines everyone's everyday life Contemporary Issues in South African Military Psychology Nicole Dodd, Petrus C.
