No Les No Moore:

No Place for Pilgrims Mike Marshall, 2025-11 While doing research for a term paper on civil rights for his ninth grade civics class in the spring of 1976 Mike Marshall found an article in Time magazine about William Moore a thirty five year old postman from Binghamton New York On the afternoon of April 20 1963 Moore arrived at the Chattanooga bus station from Washington D C where he strapped on his protest signs He planned to walk to the governor s mansion in Jackson Mississippi and hand deliver a letter to Governor Ross Barnett On the third day of his walk he pushed his cart through Keener Alabama about fifteen miles north of Gadsden and twenty miles from Marshall s paternal grandparents home He stopped at a general merchandise store ate a can of corn and a pecan pie and read the afternoon newspaper About an hour later he rounded a curve that hugged a small park and saw a black car parked under a walnut tree its headlights and motor off The Sand Mountain area between Chattanooga Tenn and Gadsden Ala is no place for pilgrims read the opening paragraph of the Time story It is a land of mountaineers who tote rifles in their cars glare in suspicion at strangers and believe unshakably in racial segregation Last month William Moore thought he might change things by walking through the area displaying civil rights signs It cost him his life he was found shot dead on U S Highway 11 No Place for Pilgrims is Marshall s effort to fulfill a promise to both himself and his dying mother a promise she did not want him to keep to solve one of the only remaining civil rights cold cases And once Marshall discovered who the killer actually was he also figured out why his mother didn t want him to go stirring up trouble

The Changing World Religion Map Stanley D. Brunn, 2015-02-03 This extensive work explores the changing world of religions faiths and practices It discusses a broad range of issues and phenomena that are related to religion including nature ethics secularization gender and identity Broadening the context it studies the interrelation between religion and other fields including education business economics and law The book presents a vast array of examples to illustrate the changes that have taken place and have led to a new world map of religions Beginning with an introduction of the concept of the changing world religion map the book first focuses on nature ethics and the environment It examines humankind s eternal search for the sacred and discusses the emergence of green religion as a theme that cuts across many faiths Next the book turns to the theme of the pilgrimage illustrated by many examples from all parts of the world In its discussion of the interrelation between religion and education it looks at the role of missionary movements It explains the relationship between religion business economics and law by means of a discussion of legal and moral frameworks and the financial and business issues of religious organizations The next part of the book explores the many new faces that are part of the religious landscape and culture of the Global North Europe Russia Australia and New Zealand the U S and Canada and the Global South Latin America Africa and Asia It does so by looking at specific population movements diasporas and the impact of globalization The volume next turns to secularization as both a phenomenon occurring in the Global religious North and as an emerging and distinguishing feature in the metropolitan cosmopolitan and gateway cities and regions in the Global South The final part of the book explores the changing world of religion in regards to gender and identity issues the political religious nexus and the new worlds associated with the virtual technologies and visual media

The World in a Nutshell Daniel Chase,2010-10-22 Leonard Leonardo to his friends is at loose ends after his house burns and his wife leaves him Lucille a lady he knew from college invites him to the Aurban homestead she is starting At the abandoned mill Leonard meets Cille and her motley crew of cats and her equally motley crew of people including a lovable eccentric who acts like Abe Lincoln a couple named Boris and Natasha who seem to be spies a retired teacher named Tom and his streetwise young girlfriend Liv and a loose cannon named Richard Corey and his boyfriend AJill Obviously all isn t as it seemsCor is it Is Leonard behind all the strange happenings that only started when he showed up in this strange new world or is Leonard just the catalyst or an unwitting pawn in a game of intrigue

Visions of the American West Gerald F. Kreyche,2014-07-11 Countless studies of the American West have been written from the viewpoint of history psychology sociology and anthropology But the West has seldom been written about with the reflective pen of a philosopher Offering more than a fresh retelling in thoroughly human terms of the major historical events of the nineteenth century West Gerald Kreyche also leads the reader in a search for the spirit of the West itself That spirit was one with the American Dream which offered freedom individualism and self sufficiency to those strong enough and gutsy enough to heed the call of Manifest Destiny Although the West was and is the most American part of America itself its natural wonders its spacious grandeur its myths and mystique have captured the hearts and imaginations of people the world over We have all experienced the quickened pulse at the mention of things indelibly western tumbleweed mountain men high plains cowboys and Indians sod houses coyotes and grizzlies And who doesn t react to such bigger than life figures as Jim Bridger Buffalo Bill George Armstrong Custer Sitting Bull and Crazy Horse The personal humdrum of our times rapidly disappears when through the magic of western films TV shows and books we vicariously lose ourselves and then find ourselves in the American West of a bygone time The West then produced a quasi separate culture And as each culture must it gave birth to its own ethos its own special character its own tone and set of guiding beliefs Kreyche contends that in the process of westering the veneer of the sophisticated easterner was sloughed off leaving in sharp outline the frontiersman and the pioneer In their own manner these men and women produced a new species of homo americanus
