Rhetorical Models for Effective Writing Karl J. Nicholas, James R. Nicholl, 1981
Writing, 1978      Models for Effective Writing J. Karl Nicholas, James R. Nicholl, 1994-01      Models for Effective Writing
James Karl Nicholas, James R. Nicholl, 2000 This valuable writing resource focuses on demonstrating the various rhetorical modes. In addition, it contains a sizable argumentation section along with significant coverage of narrative, descriptive, and expository writing. All the readings have been chosen for accessibility as examples of writing whose organization and techniques students are capable of emulating. Within each section, selections are organized in order of increasing difficulty, followed by questions and vocabulary exercises. Separate introductory chapters, The Reading Process and The Writing Process, are also included to help students improve their basic reading and writing skills.

Design Principles for Teaching Effective Writing Raquel Fidalgo Redondo, Karen Harris, Martine Braaksma, 2017-11-20
This volume presents effective instructional programs focused on two perspectives on writing: the teaching and learning of writing as a skill and the use of writing as a learning activity in various school subjects or skills acquisition. It is focused on analysing micro design features of the programs, such as learning activities, supporting materials, specific strategies, instructional techniques, but also macro design rules of intervention programs, such as instructional sequence, instructional stages based on research evidence provided for previous studies. This volume goes beyond a practical volume because it provides additional reflection and discussion about theoretical background and empirically based evidence which support the specific intervention programs described. Several chapters in this book include links to an Open Access e-book where teacher and student materials for the authors' instructional approaches can be found; see ToC.
