Modern Industrial Cities:

Modern Industrial Cities Bruce M. Stave, 1981-12 Social scientists and planners frequently ignore historical findings Conversely urban historians may fail to consider work in other disciplines or the needs of planners Designed to bridge these gaps Modern Industrial Cities brings together prominent urbanists historians sociologists planners economists political scientists geographers and policy makers from throughout the US and Europe Provocative interdisciplinary essays cast new light on essential issues of urban history and its critical implications for policy making it is a fascinating volume filled with passing insights into both policy and historiography The Commentary following each section is particularly useful as well as are the introductory This Issue is Devoted To: the Dynamics of Modern Industrial Cities Bruce M. Stave, 1980

Industrial Cities Clemens Zimmermann, 2013-09 Bringing together essays from leading experts who analyze how the landscapes images social dynamics and economies of the industrial city have changed through boom and bust this volume covers a wide range of subjects from car cities to steel towns from visualization of industrial cities in avant garde art to the role of industrial heritage in urban regeneration In total Industrial Cities makes a significant contribution to our understanding of how the past shapes the future it will be of interest not only to urban and economic historians but also to social geographers and policy makers

Heritage Tourism and Cities in China Honggang Xu, Trevor Sofield, 2019-07-09 China has surged into the 21st century as one of the most rapidly modernizing countries in the world Its burgeoning cities reflect this extraordinary growth with a dazzling array of new architectural forms and designs In its transformation the 5000 year old heritage of its built civilization embedded in its villages towns and cities has often been replaced The Chinese Government aware of the value of this heritage has in recent years taken concrete steps to conserve and preserve not just national icons such as the Forbidden Palace in Beijing the Great Wall of China and the Grey Goose Pagoda in Xian but also the more general historic fabric of its urban development over the centuries The challenges are great particularly as population growth and rural urban drift have combined to place enormous pressure on city resources The chapters in this book explore these challenges as well as analysing other institutional cultural social and economic issues related to urban heritage conservation and utilization with a focus on the role of tourism in reinforcing conservation values by finding new uses for old buildings and districts This book covers new areas of heritage tourism research in Chinese cities The chapters were originally published in a special issue of the Journal of Heritage Tourism

The Disoriented State Bas Arts, Arnoud Legendijk, Henk J. van Houtum, 2009-01-18 By providing a unique combination of theories on the state on territoriality and on governance The Disoriented State explores the relationship between state governmentality and specific forms of policy making The Disoriented State begins with a theorisation of these new modes of territoriality governmentality and governance by three prominent scholars in the field Neil Brenner Phil Cerny and Bob Jessop This is followed by a series of in depth case studies which manifest the variety as well the various forms of co constitution between state governmentality new modes of
