Division of Ancient and Oriental Languages and Literatures, 1910 Book of Poems Federico García Lorca, Stanley Appelbaum, 2004-01-01 Although the life of Federico García Lorca 1898-1936 was tragically brief the Spanish poet and dramatist created an enduring body of work of international importance This selection of 55 poems from a 1921 collection represents some of García Lorca's finest work Imbued with Andalusian folklore rich in metaphor and complex spirituality they attest to the poet's popularity as one of Spain's most widely read authors Columbia University Bulletin Columbia University, 1917 Books Out Loud, 2004 Paperbound Books in Print, 1984 Online Chinese Learning Lijuan Chen, 2024-02-22 Online Chinese Learning aims to investigate the types of language learning strategies LLSs that online Chinese learners use across asynchronous and synchronous learning environments in different learning contexts This book examines how the use of language learning strategies by online Chinese learners is influenced by the interactants the characteristics of the specific learning context and selected individual learner characteristics This book will provide 1 new and detailed information about students LLS use in online Chinese learning 2 insights into how individual students adopt LLSs and technological tools to solve learning problems in various learning contexts 3 an exploration of factors influencing LLS use and 4 recommendations regarding LLS adoption use and training This book will be a valuable resource for university instructors in languages language teaching methods and second language acquisition as well as researchers in languages linguistics and language learning and teaching Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1887 Current Literature, 1930 Modern Chinese Parts of Speech Guo Rui, 2019-03-04 What is the essence of a part of speech Why is it difficult to classify parts of speech What are the bases and criteria for classifying them How should they be classified In doing so how should a conversional word be dealt with How should nominalization be treated These are just some of the questions answered in this book The classification of parts of speech in Chinese is a tough job due to the language's lack of morphological differences Based on the analysis of nearly 40 000 Chinese characters this book proposes that essentially a part of speech is not of distributional type and that its intrinsic basis is an expressional function and the semantic type Essentially large categories such as substantive words predicate words and modification words are classes of words classified according to their expressional functions Basic categories such as nouns verbs and adjectives are classes that combine semantic types with syntactical functions In classifying parts of speech the book pays attention not to identifying a single distributive characteristic that is internally universal and externally exclusive but to clustering the grammatical functions that have the same classification value through the reflection representation relationship among distribution expressional function and semantic type distribution reflects expressional function and semantic type which are in turn represented as distribution thereby identifying the classification criteria It uses distributional compatibility and the correlation principle to analyze which distributional differences represent differences in parts of speech and which do not In this way grammatical functions that have equal classification values are collected into one equivalent function cluster each of which represents one part of speech The book uses four strategies to classify parts of speech namely the homogeneity strategy the homomorphical strategy the priority homomorphical strategy and the consolidation strategy It will be a valuable reference for Chinese linguistic researchers and students as well as Chinese learners Reading Chinese Script Jian Wang,Hsuan-Chih Chen,Ralph Radach,Albrecht Inhoff,1999-02 This volume which includes both Chinese and leading Western researchers will be of interest to all those studying reading and visual symbol processing For cognitive psychologists and cognitive scientists as well as reading researchers Words on Cassette, 2002 R R Bowker Publishing,2002 L2 Phonology Meets L2 Pronunciation John Archibald,Mary Grantham O'Brien,Andrew Sewell,2022-01-24 The Publishers Weekly ,1917 The Journal of Education ,1898 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2004 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985 Chinese Centre for Information on Language Teaching and Research,1986 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Library Journal ,2003 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately
