Often family members feel like they can't stop long enough to get organized. It can be so discouraging to get your home organized and then watch helplessly as the clutter makes its way back in. How does that happen? It's basically a mindset to get organized is one thing but to stay that way means you need to approach each day with it in mind. Rather than give up try working some habits into your family life to make organization stick around. Organizing time is just as important as organizing your stuff. If each family member has his or her own calendar it can become a major headache trying to coordinate everyone's schedule. Try having an ultimate family planner such as My Family Planner that can be used by everyone. If you put it by the front door everyone can see what is going on before leaving and as soon as they come home. My Family Planner is so flexible that it is certain to make family life that little bit clearer for every single member of your wonderful family. First off you get to make a master shopping list and a list of all the household chores that need doing. This list is divided by how often these chores need doing. There is an undated monthly planner section which is perfect for seeing what each family member has going on in the month ahead. This includes important dates as well as whole family plans. You will also find a Key so each family member can use their own colour in this ultimate family planner. The months are also divided into months providing you with the perfect weekly family planner. Each week you and your family have room for a breakdown of your plans for the week ahead. School dates. A family to do list. A shopping list. A chore list highlighting who needs to do what. Notes. My Family Planner is the only planner you need to keep your family organised and keep track of all your family activities.
