Mining Capitalism And Black Labour In The Early Industrial Period In South Africa:

Mining Capitalism and Black Labour in the Early Industrial Period in South Africa Selim Gool,1983 Mining Capitalism and Black Labour in the Early Industrial Period in South Africa Selim Gool,1983 Studies in the Economic History of Southern Africa Z.A. Konczacki,Jane L. Parpart,Timothy M. Shaw,2014-01-14 First Published in 1990 Volume Two of Studies of Economic History of South Africa looks at the Lesotho and Swaziland regions The unfolding history and historiography of Southern Africa pose profound challenges for both analysis and praxis in the last decade of the twentieth century These challenges are reflected in the range of investigations and contradictions some of which are treated here which together constitute an intellectual and political conjuncture This collection of studies deals with the countries which were not included in the companion book on the economic history of the Front Line States Most of the space in the present volume is devoted to South Africa primarily because of its importance to the region but also because contributions to the economic history of that country in English are very extensive as compared to the other states of Southern Africa The Political Economy Of South Africa Ben Fine,2018-02-12 Democratization in South Africa has been accompanied by continuing and even deepening economic inequalities Rather than proposing a blueprint for a more equitable economic system this book presents the results and implications of wide ranging research on the history and current dynamics of the South African economy over the past fifty years The authors analyze a range of strategic economic trajectories linking these to the shifting balance of economic and political power and they set the parameters within which the economic and political debates are conducted The acclaim with which democratization in South Africa has been greeted has been tempered by the recognition that there are at the same time continuing and even deepening economic inequalities This is more disturbing given the extreme economic disparity experienced by much of the black population the retreat from commitments to public ownership enshrined in the Freedom Charter the unambiguous safeguarding of private capital and the obstacles placed in the way of progressive economic policies by business interests and the entrenched apartheid era bureaucracy Rather than proposing a blueprint for a more equitable economic system this book presents the results and implications of detailed and wide ranging research on both the history and current dynamics of the South African economy from the Second World War to the present The authors analyze a range of strategic economic trajectories linking these to the shifting balance of economic and political power in South Africa But their approach is not prescriptive instead they set the parameters within which the economic and political debates are conducted They also discuss the theoretical arguments involved in the propositions that they and others have put forward The books value is enhanced by the comprehensiveness of the data presented and each chapter is self contained so that particular topics can be studied separately The Creation of Tribalism in Southern Africa Leroy Vail,1989 Migrant Labour and Colonial Rule in Basutoland, 1890-1930 Judith M. Kimble,1999 Journal of the University of Durban-Westville ,1984 Archbishop Daniel William Alexander and the African Orthodox Church

Morris Rodney Johnson,1999 The International Journal of African Historical Studies ,1986 South Africa Under Apartheid Jacqueline Audrey Kalley,1987 As apartheid s crisis has deepened so interest in South Africa s past present and future has increased With this scholarly and popular writing on the country has proliferated This 1100 entry Bibliography guides the scholar or interested layman through the relevant literature on South Africa and the policy of apartheid Its cumulative impact is to show how racial domination permeates all aspects of modern South African society Brief informative annotations facilitate choice and the extensive Subject and Author Indexes provide quick access The Independent Trade Unions, 1974-1984 Johann Maree,1987 South Africa in World War II ,1995 Southern African Update ,1986 A bibliographical survey South African Labour Bulletin ,1987 World Racism and Related Inhumanities Meyer Weinberg,1992-05-27 This is the first comprehensive worldwide bibliography of racism It contains references on some 135 countries and extends from ancient times to the present The first part of the work consists of references dealing with single countries More than 10 000 citations are organized according to country from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe The second part contains references to areas or regions or to related bibliographies Some 2 000 non duplicated citations are provided here While the vast majority of entries are to English language materials a number of German French Spanish and other language items are included as well The work concludes with an author index and a subject index Due to the many ways racism manifests itself this bibliography will be of great value to scholars and students from a variety of disciplines from economics and education to sociology and history African Research & Documentation ,1983 A Failed Eldorado Priscilla M. Shilaro,2008 This work explores Britain s attempt to take land from the Bantu Luyia peoples of Western Kenya for gold mining following the discovery of gold in the North Kavirondo NK reserve in 1931 The discovery led to the Kenyan gold rush in which local European settler farmers and mining prospectors converged on Kakamega The presence of mining prospectors in Western Kenya and the move to transform a rural agrarian terrain into an industrial one had important economic political socio cultural medical and environmental ramifications for the inhabitants This book illuminates the struggles of mine workers and dispossessed African households by looking at their actions and reactions toward the emerging British colonial venture of the region Fundamentally this work captures the largely undocumented histories of the common people who lived through Kenya s failed eldorado The Institutional Root of China's Rural Industry and Gradual Reform Xiaolin Pei,1998 Labour Capital and Society ,1984 Settlement Colonization and Transnational Labor Emigrations in the Maghreb Raouf Ressaissi,1984
