Changes in healing beliefs and practices offer a window into changes in religious authority, church structure, and ideas about sanctity, history, resurrection, and the kingdom of God. Porterfield chronicles these changes at the same time, shedding important new light on the universality of religious healing. Finally, she looks at recent scientific findings about religion's biological effects and considers the relation of these findings to ages-old traditions about belief and healing. Healing Miracles Hugh Melinsky, 1968 The History of Our Lord as Exemplified in Works of Art Mrs. Jameson (Anna), 1872 S. Hurst Seager collection no. 249.250 Miracle and History John Huntley Skrine, 1912 A History of the warfare of science with theology in Christendom v. 2 Andrew Dickson White, 1897 People's Journey with God I' 2007 Ed. (salvation History), The Ministry of Healing A. J. Gordon, 2020-02-18 Classic Christian author A. J. Gordon expresses curiosity about whether the healing miracles from the Middle Ages up to his day can be verified as a continuation of Christ's Spirit in the church. Through deep study and inquiry of the established history, Gordon concludes that the power to heal followers remains with the church; there was no special era of miracle-working God, and His powers remain the same in the modern era as they have right through human history. For Gordon, God's intervention in the suffering and sickness of His followers is frequent; the will of the Lord, however, is variable, but He will not prolong the pain of someone whose illness is too great. Throughout this text, A. J. Gordon makes his argument from a biblical perspective, citing passages in both the Old and New Testament that support the continuation of spiritual gifts. Quoting testimonies of believers across the ages, he offers a convincing argument that the church ministry is to this day one of healing. The Natural History of Immortality Joseph William Reynolds, 1891 The History of Jesus of Nazareth Theodor Keim, 1879 The History of Jesus of Nazareth; Considered in Its Connection with the National Life of Israel, and Related in Detail, Translated from the German Theodore Keim, 1877 Christian Healing History and Hope Mary Theresa Webb, 2002 Identify signs and symptoms of chemical dependency, depression, sex addiction, trauma response, and eating disorders. The process of healing and recovery is described. The Gospel History of Christ Erastus Blakeslee, 1907 Mile-stones of History, Literature, Travel, Mythology, Sculpture, and Art Frank McAlpine, 1887 Healing Miracles M.A.H..
