Rethinking Khoe and San Indigeneity, Language and Culture in Southern Africa Julie Grant, Keyan G.

Tomaselli, 2022-09-19 The San hunter gatherers and Khoe herders of southern Africa were dispossessed of their land before during and after the European colonial period which started in 1652 They were often enslaved and forbidden from practicing their culture and speaking their languages In South Africa under apartheid after 1948 they were reclassified as Coloured which further undermined Khoe and San culture forcing them to reconfigure and realign their identities and loyalties Southern Africa is no longer under colonial or apartheid rule the San and Khoe however continue in the struggle to maintain the remnants of their languages and cultures and are marginalised by the dominant peoples of the region The San in particular continue to command very extensive research attention from a variety of disciplines from anthropology and linguistics to genetics They are however usually studied as static historical objects but they are not merely peoples of the past as is often assumed they are very much alive in contemporary society with cultural and language needs This book brings together studies from a range of disciplines to examine what it means to be Indigenous Khoe and San in contemporary southern Africa It considers the current constraints on Khoe and San identity language and culture constantly negotiating an indeterminate social positioning where they are treated as the inconvenient indigenous Usually studied as original anthropos but out of their time this book shifts attention from the past to the present and how the San have negotiated language literacy and identity for coping in the period of modernity It reveals that Afrikaans is indeed an African language incubated not only by Cape Malay slaves working in the kitchens of the early Dutch settlers but also by the Khoe and San who interacted with sailors from passing ships plying the West coast of southern Africa from the 14th century The book re examines the idea of literacy its relationship to language and how these shape identity The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Critical Arts South North Cultural and Media Studies Anthropology and the Bushman Alan Barnard,2007-04-01 The Bushman is a perennial but changing image The transformation of that image is important It symbolizes the perception of Bushman or San society of the ideas and values of ethnographers who have worked with Bushman peoples and those of other anthropologists who use this work Anthropology and the Bushman covers early travellers and settlers classic nineteenth and twentieth century ethnographers North American and Japanese ecological traditions the approaches of African ethnographers and recent work on advocacy and social development It reveals the impact of Bushman studies on anthropology and on the public The book highlights how Bushman or San ethnography has contributed to anthropological controversy for example in the debates on the degree of incorporation of San society within the wider political economy and on the validity of the case for indigenous rights as a special kind of human rights Examining the changing image of the Bushman Barnard provides a new contribution to an established anthropology debate A PDF version of this book is available for free in open access via the OAPEN Library platform www.oapen.org Re-imagining Africa African Studies Association of Australasia and the Pacific. Annual Conference,2001 This book provides a plethora of insights and perspectives that take up and challenge prevailing points of view about today s Africa The chapters examine a number of different media and topics from African theatre to poetry from accounts of personal history to South Africa s language policy and publishing practices Their unifying theme is a search for tomorrow s cultural trends in an ever changing Africa

Conservation and Mobile Indigenous Peoples Dawn Chatty,Marcus Colchester,2025-05-01 The second edition of this remarkable volume updates the immense advances in policy and soft international law with regards to the rights of mobile indigenous peoples in conservation The contributors to this book examine the interface between conservation and indigenous communities who are forced to move or settle elsewhere to accommodate environmental policies and biodiversity concerns The case studies investigate successful and not so successful community managed projects in Africa the Middle East South and SouthEastern Asia Australia and Latin America Discourses of Place/deterritorialization Eeva

Aarrevaara,2000 Anthropologica ,2003 The Proceedings of the Khoisan Identities and Cultural Heritage Conference Western Cape Institute for Historical Research,1998 Shifting Selves Herman Wasserman,Sean Jacobs,2003 Sparked by the enormous political changes in South Africa since the fall of apartheid the essays in this collection focus on the rapidly changing nature of South African mass media art and other forms of aesthetic expression The First Bushman's Path Alan James,2001 The First Bushmen or the First there sitting People established the path along which all dead people and animals would travel to get to their final holding place a great hole in the ground And it was these First Bushmen who had been the original occupants of the land in which the Xam lived and about whom stories were told So declared Kabbo one of the last of the Xam San to narrate the stories and oral traditions which had helped to make the Xam who they were and to construct their land and make it livable    Between Unity and Diversity Gitanjali Maharaj,1999 Political transformation has compelled South Africans to reflect on what goes into building a new nation This book is a contribution to the debate on nation building Among the topics it covers are Language and the national question and Moulding a new society The RDP in perspective    African Arts ,2009    Native Title and the Transformation of Archaeology in the Postcolonial World Ian Lilley,2000    Kronos ,2005    Kunapipi ,2002    Self- and Other-images of Hunter-gatherers Henry Stewart,Alan J. Barnard,Keiichi Ōmura,2002    New Scientist ,1996    New Scientist and Science Journal ,1996

Mounting Queen Victoria Steven C. Dubin,2009 South African society has been refashioned since the first democratic elections were held in 1994 if democracy is the theory then transformation is the practice This is apparent in the nation s museums where collections and exhibition policies staff and audiences have been changed in fundamental ways Such changes have impacted the range of these institutions including those focusing on art natural history and science cultural history local events and military matters Steven C Dubin examines in Mounting Queen Victoria the various strategies museums have adopted to shed their former ideological biases and become more inclusive This book also notes that in this process museums have developed into lively centres of debate noisy democratic forums recovering the past and generating fresh information Publisher s website
