The French Genealogy of the Beat Generation Véronique Lane, 2017-10-19 The Francophilia of the Beat circle in the New York of the mid 1940s is well known as is the importance of the Beat Hotel in the Paris of the late 1950s and early 1960s but how exactly did French literature and culture participate in the emergence of the Beat Generation French modernism did much more than inspire its first major writers it materially shaped their works as this comparative study reveals through close textual analysis of William Burroughs Allen Ginsberg and Jack Kerouac s appropriations of French literature and culture Sometimes acknowledged sometimes not their appropriations take multiple forms ranging from allusions invocations and citations to adaptations and translations and they involve a vast array of works including the poetic realist films of Carn and Cocteau the existentialist philosophy of Sartre and the poems and novels of Baudelaire Rimbaud Proust Gide Apollinaire St John Perse Artaud C line Genet and Michaux While clarifying the extent of Burroughs Ginsberg and Kerouac s engagements with French literature and culture in depth analysis of their textual appropriations emphasises differences in their views of literature philosophy and politics which help us understand the early Beat circle was divided from the start The book s close readings also transform our perception of Burroughs cut up practice Kerouac s spontaneous prose and Ginsberg s poetics of open secrecy

Recovering Sanity E Podvoll, 2003-11-11 Recovering Sanity is a compassionately written examination of the experience of psychosis and related mental illnesses By presenting four in depth profiles of illness and recovery Dr Edward Podvoll reveals the brilliance and chaos of the psychotic mind and demonstrates its potential for recovery outside of traditional institutional settings Dr Podvoll counters the conventional thinking that the millions of Americans suffering from psychosis can never fully recover He offers a bold new approach to treatment that involves home care with a specially trained team of practitioners Using basic attendance a treatment technique inspired by the author s study of Buddhist psychology healthcare professionals can use the tools of compassion and awareness to help patients recover their underlying sanity Originally published as The Seduction of Madness this reissue includes new introductory material and two new appendices Misérable Miracle (La Mescaline) Henri Michaux,1956 Apparitions, Daemons, and Emanations Charles Freeland,2024-03-01 The book presents a new study of the visual arts and poetry in the work of three well known French writers and artists from the mid twentieth century Georges Bataille Pierre Klossowski and Henri Michaux Each was fiercely independent belonging to no school academy or political persuasion What do they have in common While the book s three central essays do not initially set out to establish comparisons between these writers common ground emerges a shared combat against culture a shared non representational artistic practice Their writing poetry and painting offer not a portrayal of things or ideas but rather an emanation or apparition of the unknown and the infinite one charged with deepening art s relation to life Unselfing Michaela Hulstyn,2022-08-31 Altered states of consciousness including experiences of deprivation pain hallucination fear desire alienation and spiritual transcendence can transform the ordinary experience of selfhood Unselfing explores the nature of disruptive self experiences and the different shapes they have taken in literary writing The book focuses on the tension between rival conceptions of unselfing as either a form of productive self transcendence or a form of alienating self loss Michaela Hulstyn explores the shapes and meanings of unselfing through the framework of the global French literary world encompassing texts by modernist figures in France and Belgium alongside writers from Algeria Rwanda and Morocco Together these diverse texts prompt a re evaluation of the consequences of the loss or the transcendence of the self Through a series of close readings Hulstyn offers a new account of the ethical questions raised by altered states and shows how philosophies of empathy can be tested against and often challenged by literary works Drawing on cognitive science and phenomenology Unselfing provides a new methodology for approaching texts that give shape to the fringes of conscious experience *Miserable Miracle.
