Natural World Leopard:

African Storytelling for Global Citizenship Education George J.S. Dei,Dionisio Nyaga,Juliana Kami,2025-04-09 This thought provoking book outlines the pedagogical value of African storytelling It demonstrates that African wisdom has historically been part of violent colonial elimination leading to the ontological expendability of these stories and them being excluded forgotten and devalued in academic circles

Natural Healing as Conflict Resolution Nicholson,

Rebecca,2020-10-16 Traditional methods for addressing conflict and healing have been largely replaced in elite settings by modern approaches Rather than old and new complementing one another bias is present New is widely perceived as better among elite institutions even when research indicates otherwise Within the realm of international development the need for cost effective sustainable and successful methods of healing must be explored Natural Healing as Conflict Resolution is an essential reference book that examines and addresses systemic bias towards natural healing methods and explores the mutually beneficial relationships of natural healing through human and non human life forms in the context of resolving conflict It illustrates not only the more obvious biological physiological benefits of complementary approaches but also the spiritual emotional and psychological benefits of integrating natural means of healing to resolve conflict As such the book acknowledges the effectiveness and articulates the benefits of traditional indigenous healing methods and how they can be used in complementary mutually beneficial ways with modern practices Highlighting emerging topics that include ecopsychology parapsychology and holistic medicine this book is ideal for conflict resolution practitioners psychologists trauma counselors veterans associations pet therapists nature organizations academics scientists eco architects and designers international development policymakers peacebuilding institutions natural and traditional healers alternative integrative medicine practitioners spiritualists researchers and students

The Leopard's Spots Gerrit

Dimmendaal,2015-01-27 In The Leopard's Spots Gerrit J Dimmendaal discusses the interaction between language cognition and culture in an African context with special focus on the cultural construction of meaning through language Such constructions are constrained by our cognitive system but leave lots of space for culture specific interpretations and thereby for tremendous typological diversity between languages This variation reflects the adaptive nature of human language in the same way that the spots of the leopard reflect selective advantages for its natural habitat But whereas science has essentially one explanation for the rosettes of the leopard the non scientific mind may attach meaning to his or her cultural environment by way of language through a plethora of strategies
