Nature Notes Iii:

Nature Notes III Peter Brookes,2001 Following the success of Nature Notes the first two collections of this award winning cartoons for The Times newspaper on Sundays Peter Brookes now presents a third selection of brilliantly executed drawings of the people and stories that make the headlines Covering the two years of New Labour government since 1999 Nature Notes III shows how the great and the good might look as small feathered or furry or large and pachyderm with Deputy Prime Minister John Prescott as both the Unhappypotamus and a Rail a bird that travels nowhere fast William Hague as a MORI eel on the rocks on the Blackpool shoreline at party conference time Prime Minister Tony Darwin s Theory of Devolution he denied he was attacking God s work because after all he was God From political intrigue and scandal to crises of state abroad Peter Brookes dazzling portraits represent a uniquely individual and perceptive view of those who inhabit the corridors of power Ladies in the Laboratory II Mary R.S. Creese,Thomas M. Creese,2004-05-17 The lives of many of the nineteenth century s most notable women of science are presented in English for the first time in this companion volume to Ladies in the Laboratory American and British Women in Science The present volume bridges a considerable gap in English literature available on women from twelve west European countries and their work in the biological and medical sciences mathematics and social sciences A fascinating analysis of the work of notable women by national group giving thorough data comparing the contributions of women in choice fields Among the women presented are more than a few colorful personalities representative of the entire social scale from a royal princess to the daughter of a Paris slum shopkeeper Researchers in the field of women s history and science history will find this indexed volume a valuable resource
