Making Nature Sacred John Gatta, 2004-10-14 Since colonial times the sense of encountering an unseen transcendental Presence within the natural world has been a characteristic motif in American literature and culture American writers have repeatedly perceived in nature something beyond itself and beyond themselves In this book John Gatta argues that the religious import of American environmental literature has yet to be fully recognized or understood Whatever their theology American writers have perennially construed the nonhuman world to be a source in Rachel Carson's words of something that takes us out of ourselves Making Nature Sacred explores how the quest for natural revelation has been pursued through successive phases of American literary and intellectual history And it shows how the imaginative challenge of reading landscapes has been influenced by biblical hermeneutics Though focused on adaptations of Judeo Christian religious traditions it also samples Native American African American and Buddhist forms of ecospirituality It begins with Colonial New England writers such as Anne Bradstreet and Jonathan Edwards re-examines pivotal figures such as Henry Thoreau and John Muir and takes account of writings by Mary Austin Rachel Carson and many others along the way The book concludes with an assessment of the spiritual renaissance underway in current environmental writing as represented by five noteworthy poets and by authors such as Wendell Berry Annie Dillard Marilynne Robinson Peter Matthiessen and Barry Lopez This engaging study should appeal not only to students of literature but also to those interested in ethics and environmental studies religious studies and American cultural history The Complete Nature Writings of John Burroughs: Ways of nature. Far and near John Burroughs,1905 Nature and Religion in Walt Whitman and Emily Dickinson Julia Niehaus,2023-08-29 Seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1.0 University of Duisburg Essen Anglophone Studies course A Survey of American Literature language English abstract The focus of this term paper will be on Walt Whitman s Song of Myself and a selection of Emily Dickinson s poems that suit the research topic The first part of this paper will analyze Whitman s Song of Myself regarding Nature and Religion His view on things in general was unique and forward for his era and so was his language and choice of words This paper is going to illustrate Whitman s beliefs and his relationship with both topics on a deeper level The second part of this paper will concentrate on a selection of Emily Dickinson s poems that relate to Nature and Religion Her style of writing is not as explicit as Whitman s and therefore needs to be broken down more This paper will highlight her exceptional view on nature and religion which was different from the contemporary one The third part will then continue establishing which attitude Dickinson and Whitman represent more specifically in their poetry by pointing out similarities and differences Therefore this part will essentially summarize the results from the previous chapters and strengthen them The last part consists of a conclusion which will be a recap of the examined topic that is nature and religion in Walt Whitman and Emily Dickinson Furthermore it will provide an outlook on further research opportunities and things that could not be addressed in this paper yet Overall this paper will argue that Emily Dickinson and Walt Whitman are both influenced by the American Romanticism and not only mirror that in their work but also exceed it It will also establish what their individual perception of nature and religion is Research in Consumer Behavior Russell W.
