Nazi Invasions:

Fighting Nazi Occupation Malcolm Atkin,2015-09-18 Everyone knows about the Home Guard but what about the other Secret Intelligence Services SIS and M16 You can read about them in this book This England When Winston Churchill made his we shall never surrender speech in 1940 he was speaking in the knowledge that Britain's Secret Intelligence Service was planning a civilian British resistance movement to mobilize after the country had been occupied Britain's planning for clandestine warfare developed out of a fierce battle between the Secret Intelligence Service and the War Office for the control of guerrilla warfare and conflicting ideas over the legitimacy of armed civilians A multi layered system of secret organizations was the result The Auxiliary Units are the best known of these ungentlemanly forces but in this perceptive new study based on painstaking original research Malcolm Atkin clearly demonstrates that they were never intended as a resistance organization Instead they were designed as a short term guerrilla force whilst their Special Duties Branch was designed to spy on the British public as much as any Nazi invader Meanwhile deep in the shadows was the real resistance organization Section VII of SIS Malcolm Atkin's conclusions will cause controversy among military historians and will change our understanding of the preparations made in Britain to resist Nazi occupation in the Second World War A detailed yet accessible historical study ProtoView

Hitler's Invasion of East Anglia, 1940 Martin W. Bowman, 2019-12-27

The aviation historian presents a provocative analysis of WWII airborne operations to investigate what happened to Hitler's planned invasion of England. Did a German invasion or invasions take place along the shores of East Anglia in 1940? Though Operation Sealion the intended invasion of southern England never materialized Hitler asked his forces to mount one, two or even three small invasions in 1940. This raises some provocative questions. Were the mass raids on London merely a diversion? Why have all the files on this most dramatic period in British history been kept hidden? Why have the instances involving setting fire to the sea and skirmishes around our coasts been covered up? Martin W. Bowman tells the full story of these remarkable events involving British defenders in the Army Home Guard and Auxiliary Units and the invading Nazi military forces. This revealing history examines Allied and German airborne operations during the Second World War to piece together a truly riveting narrative. It is complimented by an extensive Appendix section and scores of previously unpublished photos.
