

A photograph showing a collection of ancient pottery shards and a reconstructed vessel on a dark, textured surface. The pottery is light-colored and appears to be made of a clay-like material. Some pieces are whole or nearly whole, while others are broken into smaller fragments. A large, shallow vessel with a distinct spiral or concentric circle pattern on its surface is prominent in the center. Another vessel, which looks like a small pot or a lid, is positioned to its right. The background is a dark, possibly stone or concrete, surface with some scattered debris. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the texture of the pottery and the surface it rests on.
