Evangelical Christian Responses to Islam Richard McCallum, 2024-02-08 Do Christians and Muslims worship the same God Who was Muhammad? How does the Israeli Palestinian conflict affect Christian Muslim relations? This is a book about Evangelical Christians and how they are answering challenging questions about Islam. Drawing on over 300 texts published by Evangelicals in the first two decades of the twenty first century this book explores what the Evangelical micro public sphere has to say about key issues in Christian Muslim relations today. From the books they write the blogs they post and the videos they make it is clear that Evangelical Christians profoundly disagree with one another when discussing Islam. Answers to the questions range from seeing Muslims as the enemy posing an existential threat to Christians through to welcoming them as good neighbours or even as close cousins.

Toward Respectful Understanding and Witness among Muslims Evelyn A. Reisacher, Joseph L. Cumming, Dean S. Gilliland, 2012-06-28 Fifteen preeminent Christian scholars of Islam present their latest research and reflections. The book is organized around three themes encouraging friendly conversation Christian scholarship and Christian witness. Published in honor of J. Dudley Woodberry it is more than a collection of essays by friends and colleagues. It offers a seldom available synopsis of the theories of contemporary leading Christian academicians whose work is currently influencing a wide range of Christian institutions agencies churches and individuals. The authors provide cutting edge and greatly needed resources for developing a better understanding of Muslims. In an age of increasing challenges facing Muslim Christian relations this volume offers Christians a unique opportunity to rethink their assumptions It also presents practical steps which can inform their daily encounters with Muslims This book is essential reading for people with research interests in Islam for Bible school and seminary students for church leaders and for all those who want to be informed of the latest empirical research and theoretical perspectives affecting Muslim Christian relations

Islam and Women Moyra Dale,2021 In a field where the majority of publications on Islam are by men and about men s experience of Islam this book offers a new perspective on Islam through the world of women Drawing on rich personal experience Islamic texts culture and history the author explores faith cultural themes and everyday life for Muslim women Publisher

culturally relevant Christians who serve Jesus among people from a different culture than their own often struggle to find a good way to disciple people Walking Together on the Jesus Road addresses this need by guiding readers through three essential practices for making disciples across cultures listening to disciples to get to know them and their context focusing on relationships with Christ fellow disciples and others and enabling disciples to live out their faith in culturally relevant ways These practices are the foundation for the long term intentional process of helping disciples from other cultures become more like Jesus The book also engages with practical challenges such as enabling disciples to find and belong to a nurturing community of faith as well as contextualizing the way we teach the Bible More Screams, Different Deserts Sue

Eenigenburg,2013-10-14 Joy and Perseverance for Women in Cross Cultural Ministry More Screams Different Deserts is another invitation to join Sue on her adventures in cross cultural living and biblical studies that have helped her along the way With twenty seven years of experience in cross cultural ministry Sue realizes that joy and perseverance are essential for thriving in life and ministry Her stories and insights encourage women to look to Jesus our only hope wherever we live

Stories ranging from one corner of the world to another include discovering a forgotten museum protecting her children from chocolate visiting a camel market and meeting wild pigs on a nighttime walk God has been her refuge and his Word held her steady when all she really wanted to do was run away and hide Questions and resources at the end of each chapter will help readers think through personal application and find additional help Beyond Our Walls Anita Rahma,2022-11-15 Finding True Worth in the Slums With over one billion people living in urban slums today these communities are arguably one of the largest unreached demographics in the world The challenge is great as are the sacrifices of living there yet the Lord can do much with a willing follower So what if choosing to live in a slum is a way to become closer to Jesus Beyond Our Walls provides a unique window into what ministry in an urban slum setting can look like The author shares the amazing story of God s faithfulness in her life as she follows Jesus into the slums of Jakarta Indonesia and still lives there twelve years later with her husband and two young sons Not only have her Muslim neighbors had an opportunity to get to know a follower of Jesus but the author herself has been forever changed by her experiences Readers will be moved and challenged by this book

It provides an intriguing testimony that will appeal to those interested in Muslim Chrisitan relations And women already on the mission field will find it especially encouraging as the author reflects on the difficult aspects of mothering on the field and the faithfulness of Jesus through the hard years of parenting small children While life in the slums is often hard the joys are many as well Mini-skirts, Mothers, and Muslims Christine A.
