Misogyny, Misandry, and Misanthropy R. Howard Bloch, Frances Ferguson, 2020-09 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact. Narrative Personae and Desire in Modernist Fiction Kevin Ohi, Professor of English Kevin Ohi, 2025-09-25 Narrative Personae and Desire in Modernist Fiction explores how narrative language renders subjective states of interiority and desire. Its detailed readings consider seminal modernists Ford, Woolf, Faulkner, and Welty alongside unjustifiably neglected queer writers such as Eichendorff and Radclyffe.

Lindeman,2025-10-01 The Art of Anna Dorothea Therbusch 1721 1782 is the first English language monograph on this exceptional German artist that critically examines Therbusch's artworks and career as a history and mythological painter portraitist and maker of synthetic pigments within the German and international milieu that both condemned and celebrated her accomplishments Adding to the excellent scholarship on French British Italian and Swiss eighteenth century women painters this book showcases the social and cultural practices of court cultures beyond France with a focus on German speaking Europe and how a provocative woman painter navigated within them Meticulous archival and literary research sheds new light on the importance of the family atelier as a place of networking collaboration and experimentation in the eighteenth century and provides a fresh perspective on the growing Prussian intellectual and mercantilist cultures and their impact on Therbusch's artistic production and the unavoidable fluency between painting the minor or luxury arts and the laboratory Therbusch's life and art enriches our understanding of female artistic agency and the complexities of pursuing a career in the male and academy dominated art world of the eighteenth century French XX Bibliography Susquehanna as completely Staging Habla de Negros Nicholas R. Jones, 2019-05-01 In this volume Nicholas R. Jones analyzes white appropriations of black African voices in Spanish theater from the 1500s through the 1700s when the performance of Africanized Castilian commonly referred to as habla de negros black speech was in vogue Focusing on Spanish Golden Age theater and performative poetry from authors such as Calderón de la Barca Lope de Rueda and Rodrigo de Reinosa Jones makes a strong case for revising the belief long held by literary critics and linguists that white appropriations and representations of habla de negros language are racist buffoonery or stereotype Instead Jones shows black characters who laugh sing and shout ultimately combating the violent desire of white supremacy By placing early modern Iberia in conversation with discourses on African diaspora studies Jones showcases how black Africans and their descendants who built communities in early modern Spain were rendered legible in performative literary texts Accessibly written and theoretically sophisticated Jones's groundbreaking study elucidates the ways that habla de negros animated black Africans agency empowered their resistance and highlighted their African cultural retentions This must read book on identity building performance and race will captivate audiences across disciplines     Feminist Art Criticism Cassandra L. Langer, 1993 This annotated bibliography is devoted exclusively to writings on feminist art criticism theory and culture Langer lists and summarizes more than 1000 works books pamphlets articles periodicals exhibition catalogues reviews newspapers unpublished manuscripts and alternative publications Although emphasis is on groundbreaking perspectives that have emerged in the US and Britain during the last 25 years the bibliography also covers critical work published during the last century including a number of relevant European works     Breakcore Andrew Whelan, 2008 Peer to peer music exchange sampling and digital distribution have garnered much attention in recent years notably in debates about authorship intellectual property media control and Web 2.0 However empirical scholarship on how these technologies are used creatively by musicians and fans is still sparse In this interdisciplinary ethnography of bedroom producer culture Andrew Whelan examines interaction and exchange within a specific online milieu peer to peer chatrooms dedicated to electronic music focusing on a genre known as breakcore. The author draws on semantic anthropology ethnometodology sociolinguistics and critical musicology to explore the activity afforded by this controversial and criminalised environment Through in depth analysis of often ritually vituperative text based interaction discussions of music and the samples used in that music Whelan describes the cultural politics and aesthetics of bedroom producer identity highlighting the roles gender and ethnicity play in the constitution of subcultural authenticity Empirically driven throughout this book also engages with a spectrum of social theory in doing so it highlights the intersections between gender interaction technology and music This book will prove valuable for students and scholars with interests in gender and language use computer mediated communication online subcultures and virtual community and the evolution production and distribution of electronic music

Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 The Classical Model Harriet Amy Stone,1996 Literature has its own strategies for ordering information In this elegant and insightful book about the formation of knowledge in seventeenth century France Harriet Stone asks what those strategies conveyed about the limits of science and about the cultural environment of the period A propensity for reason and control pervaded literature as well as science allowing classical literature to serve as a unique laboratory for exploring the model of representation developed by science Literary texts have influenced the establishment and transformation of the paradigms grounding knowledge by drawing attention to meanings that the paradigms fail to name Stone identifies not only the momentous achievement of the discovery of the scientific method but also the more subtle process of experimentation in literature through which ideas were continually tested and redefined She offers close readings of works by Rotrou Corneille Racine Moliere La Rochefoucauld and Lafayette as well as by Descartes Furetiere and Pascal Her first and last chapters frame the literary texts within a discussion of Foucault s analysis of classical science Classical writers began to encode their own world Once they did not only science but literature became an authority for mapping knowledge Notwithstanding the classical period s efforts to affirm the unity of knowledge Stone concludes that knowledge was never complete or certain Literature s capacity to rework the model through which it assigns meanings proves essential to unfolding both the art and the science of representation The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1968
