Richard Snyder,2001 Snyder shows that the spirit of punishment in our culture is rooted in and reinforced by popular Christian misunderstandings of human nature and God s grace These misunderstandings include two consequential errors the absence of any notion of creation grace and an understanding of redemption grace couched exclusively in individualistic internalized and nonhistorical terms In both cases the social historical dimensions of grace necessary for holistic redemption are ignored Publisher Nature and Grace James A. Carpenter,1988 To move us out of entrapment in anthropocentricity into a liberating theocentricity Publisher Discusses the theology of Augustine Ivenaeus Tillich Rahner Metz Moltmann Whitehead and Westermann God and Contemporary Science Philip Clayton,1997 This text is part of the Edinburgh Studies in Constructive Theology series which aims to provide a dialogue between the history of Western theological traditions and the contemporary interpretative context Intended for those with no particular historical or theological training it guides students through the core theological issues searching out common ground by surveying the classic works of the theological tradition Jonathan Edwards and Deification James R. Salladin,2022-02-01 The language of deification or participation in the divine nature as a way to understand salvation often sounds strange to Western Christians But perhaps Western theologies have more in common with theosis that we thought James Salladin considers the role of deification in the theology of Jonathan Edwards exploring how Edwards s soteriology compares with the broader Reformed tradition Partakers of the Divine Nature Michael J. Christensen,Jeffery A. Wittung,2007 This critical volume focuses on the issue of continuity and discontinuity of the Christian concept of theosis or deification in the intellectual history of ideas It addresses the origin development and function of theosis from its antecedents in ancient Greek philosophy to its nuanced use in contemporary theological thought Often seen as a heresy in the Protestant West the revival of interest in deification in both lay and scholastic circles heralds a return to foundational understandings of salvation in the Christian

The Routledge Handbook of Placemaking Cara Courage, Tom Borrup, Maria Rosario Jackson, Kylie Legge, Anita Mckeown, Louise Platt, Jason Schupbach, 2020-12-30 This Handbook is the first to explore the emergent field of placemaking in terms of the recent research teaching and learning and practice agenda for the next few years Offering valuable theoretical and practical insights from the leading scholars and practitioners in the field it provides cutting edge interdisciplinary research on the placemaking sector Placemaking has seen a paradigmatic shift in urban design planning and policy to engage the community voice This Handbook examines the development of placemaking its emerging theories and its future directions The book is structured in seven distinct sections curated by experts in the areas concerned Section One provides a glimpse at the history and key theories of placemaking and its interpretations by different community sectors Section Two studies the transformative potential of placemaking practice through case studies on different places methodologies and theoretical frameworks It also reveals placemaking's potential to nurture a holistic community engagement social justice and human centric urban environments Section Three looks at the politics of placemaking to consider who is included and who is excluded from its practice and if the concept of placemaking needs to be reconstructed Section Four deals with the scales and scopes of art based placemaking moving from the city to the neighborhood and further to the individual practice It juxtaposes the voice of the practitioner and professional alongside that of the researcher and academic Section Five tackles the socio economic and environmental placemaking issues deemed pertinent to emerge more sustainable placemaking practices Section Six emphasizes placemaking's intersection with urban design and planning sectors and includes case studies of generative planning practice The final seventh section draws on the expertise of placemakers researchers and evaluators to present the key questions today new methods and approaches to evaluation of placemaking in related fields and notions for the future of evaluation practices Each section opens with an introduction to help the reader navigate the text This organization of the book considers the sectors that operate alongside the core placemaking practice This seminal Handbook offers a timely contribution and international perspectives for the growing field of placemaking It will be of interest to academics and students of placemaking urban design urban planning and policy architecture geography cultural studies and the arts Being and Earth Michael F. Drummy, 2000-09-06 Unlike traditional Protestant theology that viewed the natural world in ambiguous and at times hostile ways Paul Tillich's theology developed a complex relationship between God man and nature Being and Earth recommends the application of Tillich's theology which envisions a harmonious relationship with nature as an environmental ethic Being and Earth recommends the application of Tillich's theology which envisions a harmonious relationship with nature as an environmental ethic The Graced Horizon Stephen J. Duffy, Stephen Duffy, 1992 In the present century a renaissance in Roman Catholic theology sparked a renewed interest in the theology of nature and grace Without an understanding of the heated debate that raged in mid century over the nature grace dialectic Vatican Council II is not wholly intelligible for with this dispute Catholicism turned a corner The theology of nature and grace that emerged from the debate furnished a theoretical foundation for exorcising the dualisms that for so long had bedeviled Catholic life and thought and thus legitimated Catholicism s departure from its ghetto and its new openness to the world The quotidian and the religious were now seen to reside not in separate enclaves but to suffuse each other The plain truth of the humdrum was transformed into poetry and poetry into revelation This historical and interpretative study chronicles the mid century debate and analyzes the contributions of the major players and a cast of representative figures Studies in Formative Spirituality ,1991 The Greening of Theology Steven

Bouma-Prediger,1995 This volume examines the contributions of three contemporary theologians Rosemary Radford Ruether Joseph Sittler and Jurgen Moltmann to the development of Christian ecological theology Against the charge that the Christian tradition is ecologically bankrupt the author demonstrates the intellectual and spiritual resources available within Christianity for addressing ecological issues Of particular interest are Ruether s doctrine of God and her emphasis on ecojustice Sittler s cosmic Christology and reconception of the relation between nature and grace and Moltmann s doctrine of the Holy Spirit and argument for social trinitarianism Beyond evaluating the issues raised by Ruether Sittler and Moltmann the author presents sixteen theses or desiderata for any adequate Christian ecological theology Evangelical Theological Perspectives on

Post-Vatican II Roman Catholicism Leonardo De Chirico,2003 De Chirico Instituto de Formazione Evangelica e Documentazione Padova Italy begins by identifying the elastic contours of Evangelical theology in its contemporary outlook Then he examines a number of Evangelical theologians who have interacted with Roman Catholicism in general and with Roman Catholic theology in particular over the past 40 sin Humans and the Earth David W. Rutledge,1993 This fresh approach to ecological issues argues that there are important connections between the personal alienations inherited from critical philosophy and the cosmic alienation we call the environmental crisis Rooted in the historical development of modern attitudes to nature this study breaks new ground by applying a post critical perspective to western views of God humanity and the natural world Using the thought of Michael Polanyi Wendell Berry Wilfrid Cantwell Smith and William Poteat it points a way out of our abuse of the earth through a renewing of incarnate life in which our minds are no longer separated from the natural bodies they express Keeping PACE Padraic O'Hare,1996 Theological Anthropology Herman Beseah
