Navajo Chapter Government Handbook:

Navajo Chapter Government Handbook Sam Bingham, Janet Bingham, 1976      Diné Bibeehaz'áanii David Wilkins, 1987      The Handbook of Race, Ethnicity, Crime, and Justice Ramiro Martinez, Jr., Meghan E. Hollis, Jacob I. Stowell, 2018-06-08 This Handbook presents current and future studies on the changing dynamics of the role of immigrants and the impact of immigration across the United States and industrialized and developing nations. It covers the changing dynamics of race, ethnicity, and immigration and discusses how it all contributes to variations in crime, policing, and the overall justice system. Through acknowledging that some groups, especially people of color, are disproportionately influenced more than others in the case of criminal justice reactions, the War on Drugs, and hate crimes, this Handbook introduces the importance of studying race and crime so as to better understand it. It does so by recommending that researchers concentrate on ethnic diversity in a national and international context in order to broaden their demographic and expand their understanding of how to attain global change. Featuring contributions from top experts in the field, The Handbook of Race and Crime is presented in five sections: An Overview of Race, Ethnicity, Crime, and Justice; Theoretical Perspectives on Race and Crime; Race, Gender, and the Justice System; Gender and Crime; and Race, Gender, and Comparative Criminology. Each section of the book addresses a key area of research, summarizes findings or shortcomings whenever possible, and provides new results relevant to race, crime, and justice. Every contribution is written by a top expert in the field and based on the latest research. With a sharp focus on contemporary race, ethnicity, crime, and justice studies, The Handbook of Race and Crime is the ideal reference for advanced undergraduate students, graduate students, and scholars interested in the disciplines such as Criminology, Race, and Ethnicity, Race, and the Justice System, and the Sociology of Race.

Tiller's Guide to Indian Country Veronica E. Velarde Tiller, 2005 Since its debut in 1996, Tiller's Guide to Indian Country has been hailed as the resource for professionals working with Native Americans. This newly expanded edition has nearly doubled in size and features an unprecedented amount of information about 562 federally recognized tribes in 33 American states. Compiled by Dr. Veronica E. Velarde Tiller, Jicarilla Apache and historian, this comprehensive guide explores each tribe's history and modern day life, including location and land status, government and infrastructure, community services and facilities, culture and history, economic activity, and contact information with official tribal website addresses. Tiller's Guide to Indian Country is a must-have reference resource and is also available in a CD rom version. It is the only work of its kind to feature Honoring Nations from Harvard University's Project on American Indian Economic Development.

Handbook of Trends and Innovations Concerning Library and Information Science Barbara Jane Holland, 2025-06-02 The field of library and information science (LIS) is constantly evolving and adapting to the changing needs and expectations of users, society, and technology. This book provides trends and innovations that are emerging in library and information science with a multidisciplinary approach.

Handbook for Culturally Competent Care Eric A. Fenkl, Larry D. Purnell, 2024-10-22 The second edition of this incisive book based on the Purnell Model for Cultural Competence addresses the potentially challenging topic of culture in a forthright style. It is a valuable resource in today's team based healthcare environment preparing health professionals regardless of setting to conduct in depth assessments of individuals and families from culturally specific population groups. This book will appeal to all healthcare workers in all fields and it is particularly suitable for nurses interacting with patients in very diverse settings. This book delves into 32 different cultures and areas of support common to all individuals and families that health professionals must recognize and consider. African American, American Indian, Brazilian, Cuban, Chinese, Korean, and Filipino but also Arab, Hindu, or Haitian as well as many European heritages are examined among others. Brand new chapters explore Greek, Italian, Jamaican, Thai, and Ukrainian heritages. For each culture chapters detail communication styles, family roles, workforce issues, biocultural ecology, and high risk health behaviours. Also discussed are nutrition, pregnancy, and child bearing, death rituals, spirituality, healthcare practices, and the perceptions of traditional, magico-religious, and bio-medical healthcare providers. Culture's characteristics such as age, generation, gender, religion, educational, marital, parental, socioeconomic, or even military status, but also political beliefs, physical characteristics, sexual orientation, or gender issues determining the diversity of values, beliefs, and practices in an individual's cultural heritage in order to help prevent stereotyping are discussed. At the end of each chapter readers are provided with specific instructions, guidelines, tips, intervention strategies, and approaches specific to a particular cultural population. Additionally, reflective exercises help the reader reinforce the concepts presented in each chapter. For this second edition, most of the chapters are authored by individuals who either identify with the culture being addressed in the chapter or have personal knowledge of the culture via life experiences.

Navajoland Klara B. Kelley, Peter M. Whiteley, 1989    The Praeger Handbook on Contemporary Issues in Native America: Legal, cultural, and environmental revival Bruce Elliott Johansen, 2007
Provides a culturally relevant and rich introduction to contemporary issues facing Native Americans    Resources in Education, 1984    National Union Catalog, 1980 Includes entries for maps and atlases    Anasazi and Navajo Land Use in the McKinley Mine Area Near Gallup, New Mexico: Navajo ethnohistory Ben A. Nelson, Christina G. Allen, 1982

American Indian Law Review, 2008    Handbook of North American Indians: Southwest, 1983    National Union Catalog, 1980, 1981    Guide to U.S. Government Publications John L. Andriot, Donna Andriot, 2012    Explorations in Ethnomusicology Charlotte Johnson Frisbie, 1986    Native American Common Law and Legal Institutions, 1994

Dine Bibliography to the 1990s Howard M. Bahr, 1999-06 The Navajo are the largest tribe of Indians in the United States and due in part to a fascination with their relative isolation have been analyzed in numerous documentaries. In this timely supplement to the Navajo Bibliography Howard M. Bahr engages in a unique postmodern approach to his bibliography of the Navajo culture by combining health related, artistic, economic, religious, social, scientific, and other literature on the Navajo into one study. The bibliography skillfully downplays disciplinary boundaries by unifying literature that has previously only offered separate classification and access. The more than 6 300 entries are selectively annotated and cover Navajo literature from 1970 to 1990 as well as newly discovered literature including Franciscans literature that was not included in the original Navajo Bibliography. This bibliography is not only the most comprehensive bibliography to date in its coverage of more than two decades of new material but the only source that supplements the professional literature with local and cultural works. An exhaustive resource that effectively doubles the expanse of Navajo literature surveyed and indexed. Din Bibliography to the 1990s is an invaluable tool that both highlights the literature already available and expands such data to include coverage of genres that have been previously underrepresented.

Ethnographic Bibliography of North America, 4th Edition: Citations M. Marlene Martin, 1990      Domestic Violence Law Nancy K. D. Lemon, 1996 A unique and comprehensive collection of sources including published appellate cases and law review articles but also selections from the fields of sociology, psychology and anthropology. Samples of current legislation, Congressional memoranda, restraining order forms and articles from the popular press including newsletters and brochures from hard to obtain sources are included. Ms. Lemon has taught this course since 1988 and has written many pioneering pieces of legislation in this area. The materials are comprehensive in examining different points of view on the subject of domestic violence law. They help the student explore the tension between theory and practice, a critical point in teaching this subject. A historical perspective is given so that students can see both the ways the laws have changed over the past century and also the ways they have not changed. This reader lends itself to discussions of the role of the attorney in crafting the law not simply following it.
