in the contemporary period. The volume is notable for the global range of its contributors and topics indicative of the number of Muslim majority national contexts and large and diverse Muslim diaspora of today's world. While motherhood is highly valued in the sacred texts of Islam the lived reality of Muslim mothers demonstrates that their lives do not often conform with traditional religious paradigms. For instance prominent among the themes uniting these essays from diverse global contexts are the challenges facing Muslim mothers to protect and nurture their children in the context of war and militarization. With ongoing turbulence in the Middle East and subcontinent many Muslim mothers face the difficulties of rearing children amongst frequent bombings and episodes of violence. Muslim mothers living in the diaspora face other challenges such as the difficulty of fostering positive Muslim identity as a minority and in a context of Islamophobia. Other contributions discuss the way that Muslim mothers negotiate cultural institutions and practices such as divorce adoption guardianship post partum confinement and societal religious expectations of procreation. This collection demonstrates the diverse and complex ways that Muslim mothers define and redefine the resources of Islam to negotiate better situations for themselves and their children revealing how religious identity is a dynamic and vital force in their everyday lives.

Covered Glory Audrey Frank, 2019-08-20. Hiding behind the Muslim woman's veil is a heart longing for honor but often covered in shame. Meeting her will transform us all. Muslim women are coming out of hiding and telling their stories. With courageous voices they disclose tales of shame and a fierce desire to be valued. We hold our breath as they whisper accounts of Jesus dressed in light coming to them in dreams offering honor in the place of shame freedom instead of oppression. Their tales narrate a secret reality for all of us. We all long to be known to be valued to be rescued. We all are in desperate need of a Savior. In Covered Glory you will meet Muslim women living in a culture with an honor shame worldview that perpetuates their shame. As you discover how these women find freedom when they uncover their true identity you will find that shame affects each one of us. Learn that while shame tells us we are unworthy truth tells us we were made to be loved. shame tells us we are nobody. Jesus tells us You are somebody to me. shame tells us we are broken. God's Word tells us healing comes from him. It is only when we begin to understand the honor shame gospel that we are set free. And so is our Muslim neighbor when we learn to tell her of the love of Jesus in a language she understands the language of honor and shame.

Muslim Mothering, 2016 Muslim Fashion Reina Lewis, 2015-10-15. In the shops of London's Oxford Street girls wear patterned scarves over their hair as they cluster around makeup counters. Alongside them hip twenty somethings style their head wraps in high black topknots to match their black boot cut trousers. Participating in the world of popular mainstream fashion often thought to be the domain of the West these young Muslim women are part of an emergent cross faith transnational youth subculture of modest fashion. In treating hijab and other forms of modest clothing as fashion Reina Lewis counters the overuse of images of veiled women as evidence in the prevalent suggestion that Muslims and Islam are incompatible with Western modernity. Muslim Fashion contextualizes modest wardrobe styling within Islamic and global consumer cultures interviewing key players including designers bloggers shoppers store clerks and shop owners Focusing on Britain North America and Turkey Lewis provides insights into the ways young Muslim women use multiple fashion systems to negotiate religion identity and ethnicity

Voices Behind the Veil Ergun Mehmet Caner, An unprecedented sympathetic and wide ranging exploration of the mysterious world of Islamic women the people behind the veils is presented by female writers and Christian workers My Soul is a Woman Annemarie Schimmel,1997 An internationally acclaimed scholar who has dedicated more than fifty years of her life to understanding the Islamic world Annemarie Schimmel examines a much misunderstood feature of Islam the role of women Schimmel is critical of those especially Western feminists who take Islam to task without taking the time to comprehend the cultures language and traditions of the many societies in which Islam is the majority religion Shattering stereotypes Schimmel reconstructs an important but little known chapter of Islamic spirituality With copious examples she shows the clear equality of women and men in the conception of the Prophet Muhammad the Quran the feminine language of the mystical tradition and the role of holy mothers and unmarried women as manifestations of God This work is studded with luminous texts from Arabic Turkish Persian and particularly Indo Muslim cultures which reveal how physical love can give expression to the highest forms of mysticism Expectations from the Muslim Woman 'Ali Shari'ati,Laleh Bakhtiar,1996
