Minjung Theology:

Reading Minjung Theology in the Twenty-First Century Yung Suk Kim, Jin-Ho Kim, 2013-09-16 This edited volume brings Ahn Byung Mu's minjung theology into dialogue with twenty-first century readers. Ahn Byung Mu was one of the pioneers of Korean minjung theology. The centerpiece of his minjung theology is focused on the Greek word ochlos, understood as the divested, marginalized, powerless people. Part 1 introduces readers to his life and theological legacy. Part 2 includes four important writings of Ahn Byung Mu: Jesus and Minjung in the Gospel of Mark, Minjung Theology in the Gospel of Mark, The Transmitters of Jesus, Event Tradition and Minjok. Minjung and Church. Part 3 contains a collection of articles from international scholars who evaluate and engage Ahn's ochlos minjung theology in their own fields and formulate critical readings of minjung theology. Responses include postcolonial black theology and feminist perspectives. Minjung Theology, 1983. Minjung Theology Today Jin-Kwan Kwon, Volker Küster, 2018-07-01 Many people may wonder about the current state of minjung theology that started in the 1970s in resistance to the military dictatorship in Korea. They ask: Is minjung theology still alive? Or can the concept of minjung, a Korean term for poor and oppressed people, still offer a significant contribution to the reshaping of society closer to the Kingdom of God? The essays in this volume attempt to answer such questions directly and indirectly. The authors are from Korea, Germany, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Taiwan, the Philippines, and the United States. They deal with minjung theology from their own contexts. The essays were written to commemorate the late minjung theologian Suh Nam Dong (1918-1984) on the 30th anniversary of his passing. Minjung Theologie heute: Kontextuelle und interkulturelle Perspektiven. Viele werden sich wundern, was der aktuelle Status der Minjung Theologie ist, die in den 1970ern im Widerstand gegen die koreanische Militärdiktatur entstand. Sie fragen: Lebt die Minjung Theologie noch? Oder kann das Konzept minjung, ein koreanischer Begriff für die Armen und Unterdrückten, noch eine sinnvolle Perspektive bieten, wenn wir über die Veränderung unserer Gesellschaft nachdenken, um dem Reich Gottes näherzukommen? Die Autoren kommen aus Korea, Deutschland, Hong Kong, Indonesien, Taiwan, den Philippinen und den USA. Sie setzen sich mit der Minjung Theologie vor dem Hintergrund ihrer eigenen Kontexte auseinander, um den vor 30 Jahren verstorbenen Minjung Theologen Suh Nam Dong zu ehren. A Protestant Theology of Passion Volker Küster, 2010. Minjung Theology is introduced here through theological biographical sketches of its main representatives. They formulated a Protestant liberation theology under the South Korean military dictatorship of the 1970s and 80s. Their strong emphasis on the suffering of the people, minjung, led them to the formulation of a genuine theology of the cross in Asia. Volker Küster explores the reception of Minjung Theology and raises the question: what happened to it during the democratization process and the rise of globalization in the 1990s? Interpretations of art works by Minjung artists provide deep insights into these transformation processes. Prologue and epilogue abstract from the Korean case and offer a concise theory of contextual theology in an intercultural framework. The Korean Minjung in Christ David Kwang-sun Suh, 2000-08-15 What a privilege it is for us to be allowed into the theological world in which some Korean theologians such as Professor Suh had a deep experience of God as God with and in us because they had a deep experience of the suffering of minjung The Christian theology Professor Suh shares with us here is a theology of the first person pronoun a theology conceived in the womb of passion suffering and given birth in the midst of the people struggling for freedom and democracy C S Song      An Emerging Theology in World Perspective Jung Young Lee,1988      Minjung and Process Hiheon Kim,2009 This book reconstructs the legacy of Korean minjung theology by reformulating its essential ideas in a dialogue with process thought In a minimal sense this study is a theological reinterpretation of the doctrine of the minjung messiah an idea which historically suffered from a misunderstanding that minjung theology created a messianic confusion while replacing christology and soteriology by a radical anthropology This erroneous conception occurred when the idea was placed within the philosophically dualistic framework of traditional doctrines in which the work of minjung is totally separated from the work of Christ In order to avoid such a dualistic understanding the author critically adopts process panentheism and makes minjung ideas more communicable and more comprehensive in current theological religious and philosophical debates Beyond defending the idea of the minjung messiah he also argues for an inclusive minjung hermeneutics that promotes the fundamental insight of minjung theology in philosophical clarity Through minjung hermeneutics minjung theology expands its practical concern and overcomes the theoretical nihilism in postmodern studies      The People and the People of God Hans Ucko,2002 The Jewish Christian dialogue continues to be a challenge for Christian theology calling for a rethinking of Christian hermeneutics Hans Ucko widens the arena for Jewish Christian dialogue and proposes a constructive interaction between contextual theologies and Jewish Christian dialogue Minjung theology from South Korea and Dalit theology from India have creatively worked with the concepts people peoplehood and People of God The Jewish Christian dialogue has likewise delved into the question of People of God An encounter between these two worlds might be mutually enriching and challenging

A Korean Minjung Theology Hui-sök Mun,1985      Asian Contextual Theology for the Third Millennium Paul S. Chung,Veli-Matti Karkkainen,Kim Kyoung-Jae,2007-01-01 In this volume an attempt is undertaken to highlight the genesis progress and transformation of Asian contextual theology of minjung introducing its historical point of departure its development and its transformation in light of younger Korean and Korean American scholars endeavors In this regard the new Asian contextual theology which is emerging strives to integrate both minjung and the wisdom of World Religions into its own framework and direction assuming the character of a public theology and remaining humble and open before God s mystery while featuring its association with minjung in a holistic way      A Korean Minjung Theology Cyrus H. Moon,Hui-sök Mun,1993      Stories of Minjung Theology Byung-Mu Ahn,Pyöng-mu An,2019 This autobiography combines the personal story of Ahn Byung Mu one of the foremost Asian theologians with the history of the Korean nation in the light of the dramatic social political and cultural upheavals of the 1970s It records the history of minjung the people s theology one of the vigorous theologies to emerge in Asia Ahn's involvement in it and his interpretations of major Christian doctrines such as God, Sin, Jesus and Holy Spirit from the minjung perspective. The volume also contains an introductory essay which situates Ahn's work in its context and discusses the place and purpose of minjung hermeneutics in a vastly different Korea.

Minjung Theology Christian Conference of Asia. Commission on Theological Concerns, 1983 Christianity in Korea
Robert E. Buswell, Jr., Timothy S. Lee, 2007-05-31 Despite the significance of Korea in world Christianity and the crucial role Christianity plays in contemporary Korean religious life, the tradition has been little studied in the West. Christianity in Korea seeks to fill this lacuna by providing a wide-ranging overview of the growth and development of Korean Christianity and the implications that development has had for Korean politics, interreligious dialogue and gender and social issues. The volume begins with an accessibly written overview that traces in broad outline the history and development of Christianity on the peninsula. This is followed by chapters on broad themes such as the survival of early Korean Catholics in a Neo-Confucian society, relations between Christian churches and colonial authorities during the Japanese occupation, premillennialism and the theological significance of the division and prospective reunification of Korea. Others look in more detail at individuals and movements including the story of the female martyr Kollumba Kang Wansuk, the influence of Presbyterianism on the renowned nationalist Ahn Changho, the sociopolitical and theological background of the Minjung Protestant Movement and the success and challenges of Evangelical Protestantism in Korea. The book concludes with a discussion of how best to encourage a rapprochement between Buddhism and Christianity in Korea.

A Comparative Study Between Minjung Theology and Reformed Theology from a Missiological Perspective Sang-Bok Lee, 1996 How does Reformed theology compare with liberation theology with respect to the Protestant church's mission in Korea? Why has the Korean conservative church lost its social impact in its mission? Using a highly unique approach, the author examines these and other challenging questions by specifically focusing on the Minjung, a Korean form of liberation theology. A Comparative Study Between Minjung Theology and Reformed Theology from a Missiological Perspective employs solid methodology and strong intelligible arguments to challenge the conservative church to regain its social significance in the face of declining popularity.

Religion and Social Formation in Korea Sang Taek Lee, 2012-10-24 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non-Western societies; in particular, it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art, economy, law and politics. Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual, the religious imagination, constructions of tradition, iconography or media. In addition, the formation of religious communities, their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series.

the countries of South Asia South East Asia and East Asia      Redemption That Liberates Wonho Jung, 2018-02-08 This book is for both evangelicals and ecumenicals interested in a holistic approach to the Christian vision of social transformation The author compares Richard Mouw's Reformed political theology and Nam dong Suh's Minjung theology to suggest a vision of transformation that is theologically more cogent and politically more engaged In general Minjung theology understands transformation in terms of political liberation and Reformed theology in terms of spiritual redemption and theologians of the two theologies have criticized the other's approach as theologically inadequate However Suh's formulation of Minjung theology and Mouw's Reformed political theology based on the neo Calvinist worldview show significant affinities with each other in their understanding of transformation in Christ Both Suh and Mouw show a broad understanding of liberation and redemption They develop their theologies in an inclusive both and way of thinking and their holistic approach is contrasted with the exclusive either or way of thinking in the Minjung theology of Byung mu Ahn and the Reformed theology of David VanDrunen The book concludes that redemption in Christ aims at an all encompassing transformation that includes not only spiritual renewal but also liberation from social alienation economic inequality and political oppression      Redemption That Liberates Wonho Jung, 2018-02-08 This book is for both evangelicals and ecumenicals interested in a holistic approach to the Christian vision of social transformation The author compares Richard Mouw's Reformed political theology and Nam dong Suh's Minjung theology to suggest a vision of transformation that is theologically more cogent and politically more engaged In general Minjung theology understands transformation in terms of political liberation and Reformed theology in terms of spiritual redemption and theologians of the two theologies have criticized the other's approach as theologically inadequate However Suh's formulation of Minjung theology and Mouw's Reformed political theology based on the neo Calvinist worldview show significant affinities with each other in their understanding of transformation in Christ Both Suh and Mouw show a broad understanding of liberation and redemption They develop their theologies in an inclusive both and way of thinking and their holistic approach is contrasted with the exclusive either or way of thinking in the Minjung theology of Byung mu Ahn and the Reformed theology of David VanDrunen The book concludes that redemption in Christ aims at an all encompassing transformation that includes not only spiritual renewal but also liberation from social alienation economic inequality and political oppression      Minjung Theology ; a Korean Contextual Theology A.
