Depictions of the Three Orders and Estates around the Year 1500 Tomislav Vignjević,2019-07-18 This volume highlights the copious and various depictions of the three orders of society during the Late Middle Ages and at the beginning of the Early Modern Period It discusses the origins and development of the trifunctional division into the orders of the oratores bellatores and laboratores and the abundantly preserved visual material which proves that this scheme was one of the most widespread ideological foundations of European societies at that time Late Gothic and Renaissance depictions of the three orders of society can be found in different mediums from woodcuts to wall paintings and were produced by important artists such as J Fouquet and Pieter Bruegel as well as anonymous painters The vast numbers of preserved examples of this topic confirm the significance and strength of this iconographic theme at the end of the Middle Ages

The Forest in Medieval German Literature Albrecht Classen,2015-06-03 By pursuing an ecocritical reading The Forest in Medieval German Literature examines passages in medieval German texts where protagonists operated in the forest and found themselves either in conflictual situations or in refuge By probing the way the individual authors dealt with the forest illustrating how their characters fared in this sylvan space the role of the forest proved to be of supreme importance in understanding the fundamental relationship between humans and nature The medieval forest almost always introduced an epistemological challenge how to cope in life or how to find one s way in this natural maze By approaching these narratives through modern ecocritical issues that are paired with premodern perspectives we gain a solid and far reaching understanding of how medieval concepts can aid in a better understanding of human society and nature in its historical context This book revisits some of the best and lesser known examples of medieval

German literature and the critical approach used here will allow us to recognize the importance of medieval literature for a profound reassessment of our modern existence with respect to our own forests

Deutsches Archiv für Erforschung des Mittelalters ,1996 Zeitschrift für deutsche Philologie ,2003 Treasures of the Black Death Christine Descatoire, 2009 In the middle of the 14th century Europe was devastated by an appalling epidemic which killed a third of its population Accused of having spread the disease Jewish communities faced terrible persecutions which often led them to bury their most valuable goods Two of these hoards discovered at Colmar in 1863 and at Erfurt in 1998 are discussed and illustrated here Comprising a great variety of jewelry gold and silversmiths work and coins these two hoards constitute an exceptional source for the study of secular metalwork in the 13th and 14th centuries very few examples of which have otherwise come down to us They provide precious evidence of the economic activities and daily life of the medieval Jewish communities but also of their precarious position within Christian Europe In Erfurt over 1 000 people were killed the entire Jewish population Some of the objects because of their very personal character are deeply poignant
