Minority Children And Adolescents In Therapy:

Minority Children and Adolescents in Therapy Man Keung Ho, 1992-02-04 This comprehensive examination of therapy with children from ethnic minorities introduces a culturally relevant theoretical framework to aid appropriate assessment and therapeutic guidelines for work with such clients. After an introductory discussion of principles to be considered with ethnic minority children and adolescents, the author systematically applies these principles to therapy. Distinctive cultural values of child development and family functioning of each ethnic group discussed are explored. To illustrate cultural specific intervention strategies, Ho includes several case vignettes.

Child and Adolescent Therapy Faith H. McClure, Edward Teyber, 1996

Lewis's Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Andrés Martin, Fred R. Volkmar, Melvin Lewis, 2007 Established for fifteen years as the standard work in the field, Melvin Lewis's Child and Adolescent Psychiatry: A Comprehensive Textbook is now in its Fourth Edition. Under the editorial direction of Andrés Martin and Fred R. Volkmar, two of Dr. Lewis's colleagues at the world renowned Yale Child Study Center, this classic text emphasizes the relationship between basic science and clinical research and integrates scientific principles with the realities of drug interactions. This edition has been reorganized into a more compact, clinically relevant book and completely updated with two thirds new contributing authors. The new structure incorporates economics, diversity, and a heavy focus on evidence based practice. Numerous new chapters include genetics, research methodology and statistics, and the continuum of care and location specific interventions. A companion Website provides instant access to the complete, fully searchable text.

Handbook of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry: Varieties of Development Joseph D. Noshpitz, 1997 Renowned authorities in their respective fields present the most up to date coverage of all that is known regarding child and adolescent psychiatry. Presented developmentally, prominent contributors have produced a body of knowledge that describes what children are, what they need, what hurts, and helps them. Volume 1 deals with infants and preschoolers; Volume 2 with grade school children; Volume 3 deals with adolescence; and Volume 4 with varieties of development. Volume 5 contains information on assessing, diagnosing, and treatment planning for the range of psychiatric and psychologic problems children and adolescents may experience during their development. Volume 6 introduces the basic science of child and adolescent psychiatry and presents a myriad of treatment options available to psychiatrists. Volume 7 contains an overview of the history of the field of child psychiatry and examines contemporary issues facing child and adolescent psychiatrists.

Children of Color Jewelle Taylor Gibbs, Larke Huang, 1989 Abstract: This book presents comprehensive guidelines to the psychological assessment and treatment of minority children and adolescents. The authors offer intervention strategies sensitive to the cultural expectations, linguistic differences, and family structures of young people from specific minority groups. Case studies are used to show how diverse helping professionals—psychologists, social workers, therapists, counselors, and educators—can identify and solve the psychological and behavioral problems of minority youth. Traditional and innovative techniques for helping minority children
