Minus Time A Novel:

The Notebooks Michelle Berry, 2010-08-13 In the tradition of the Paris Review The Notebooks is an exciting collection of original short fiction and in depth interviews from Canada's most celebrated and innovative young writers A provocative examination of the writer's life in the twenty first century The Notebooks charts a new direction in Canadian literature It brings together a unique collection of accomplished fiction ranging from the classic storytelling of Michael Redhill to the more experimental style of Lynn Crosbie In his keenly observed story Serotonin Russell Smith captures the sensuous pleasures and dizzying energy of the rave scene Big Trash Day a hybrid of fiction and poetry by Esta Spalding is a devastating commentary on poverty and a striking portrait of the shorthand that develops within intimate relationships In a sample from a novel in progress Yann Martel shares the process through which rough sketches become realized characters and disparate moments become fleshed out scenes The interviews remarkable for their honesty and insight bring us into the writer's world revealing the passion and inspiration that motivates these young writers as well as the hardships they endure in pursuit of their art By asking thoughtful and probing questions Michelle Berry and Natalee Caple elicit frank and intriguing details of how writers work structure their days and order their physical space to facilitate the act of writing Many of the authors here explore the impact of technological innovation and mass culture on contemporary fiction as well as the influence of various art forms on the way they imagine stories The writers in The Notebooks speak candidly about their political engagement their passion for writing and their desire to produce art that will last Contributors Catherine Bush Eliza Clark Lynn Coady Lynn Crosbie Steven Heighton Yann Martel Derek McCormack Hal Niedzviecki Andrew Pyper Michael Redhill Eden Robinson Russell Smith Esta Spalding Michael Turner R M Vaughan Michael Winter Marnie Woodrow These seventeen writers come from different backgrounds different parts of the country have different lifestyles and write very different kinds of fiction yet the connections between them are still plentiful As a group they are highly engaged with the world around them politically sophisticated intelligent modest about their potential success and passionate about the act of writing We hope that The Notebooks inspires an ongoing discussion with young writers at work and answers some of the silent questions that readers have longed to ask From the Introduction

How to Read a Moment Mathias

Nilges, 2021-03-15 In How to Read a Moment Mathias Nilges shows that time is inseparable from the stories we tell about it demonstrating that the contemporary American novel offers new ways to make sense of the temporality that governs our present Time is a thing that grows scarcer every day observes one of Don DeLillo's characters The future is gone The Baffler argues Where's my hoverboard a meme demands Contemporary capitalism a system that insists that everything happen at once creates problems for social thought and narrative alike After all how does one tell the time of instantaneity In this moment of on demand service and instant trading it has become difficult to imagine the future The novel emerged as the art form of a rapidly changing modern world a way of telling time in its progress Nilges argues that this historical mission is renewed today through works that understand contemporaneity as a form of time shaping that props up our material world and cultural imagination But the contemporary American novel does not simply associate our present with a crisis of futurity Through analyses of works by authors such as DeLillo Jennifer Egan Charles Yu and Colson Whitehead Nilges illustrates that the novel presents ways to make sense of the temporality that controls our purportedly fully contemporary world In so doing the novel recovers a sense of possibility and hope forwarding a dazzling argument for its own importance today Space Oddities Marie Lathers,2012-05-03 A fascinating new perspective on the Space Race combining brilliant film scholarship with gender studies and feminist theory Timing Canada Paul Huebener,2015-12-01 Time as a form of power in Canadian society literature and cultural imagination San Francisco Review of Books ,1993 Circular Narratives in Modern European Literature Juan Luis Toribio Vazquez,2022-06-16 Breaking with linearity the ruling narrative model in the Jewish Christian tradition since the ancient world many 20th century European writers adopted circular narrative forms Juan Luis Toribio Vazquez shows this trend was not a unified nor conscious movement but rather a series of works arising sporadically in different countries at different times using a variety of circular structures to express similar concerns and ideas about the world This study also shows how the renewed understanding of narrative form leading to this circular trend was anticipated by Nietzsche s critiques of truth knowledge language and metaphysics and especially by his related discussions of nihilism and the eternal recurrence Starting with an analysis of the theory and genealogy of linear narrative the author charts the emergence of Nietzsche s idea of eternal return before then turning to the history of the circular narrative trend This history is explored from its inception in the works of August Strindberg Gertrude Stein and Azor n through its development in the interwar years by writers such as Raymond Queneau and Vladimir Nabokov to its full flowering in the work of authors James Joyce or Samuel Beckett among others and its later employment by post war writers including Alain Robbe Grillet Italo Calvino and Maurice Blanchot Through a series of close readings the book aims to highlight the various ways in which narrative circularity serves to break with an essentially teleological and theological thinking Finally Toribio Vazquez concludes by proposing a new typology of non linear narratives which builds on the work of recent narratologists Descant ,2006 The Psychology of Sex Differences Eleanor E. Maccoby,Carol Nagy Jacklin,1978 A Stanford University Press classic The Book-analyst and Library Guide ,1878 New York Times Saturday Book Review Supplement ,1994-07 Book Review Digest ,1922 Time Briton Hadden,Henry Robinson Luce,1929 Black's Guide to Devonshire ,1874 Black's Guide to Warwickshire Adam and Charles Black (Firm),1874 Black's Picturesque Tourist of Scotland Adam and Charles Black (Firm),1874 Black's Guide to Kent ,1874 Hollywood Movie Novels ,1918 Cornelii Taciti Annalium ab excessu divi Augusti libri: Books XI-XVI Cornelius Tacitus,1891 *P.
