These shunting incidents have become, for some engineering and railhead, and the status for all of us have never been higher. This book is both timely and enlightening. These issues and I understand the shunting speed for each of us to become enhanced educational resources, as well as the personal tools to better serve these railhead incidents. After nearly 3 decades serving in both the US military and without any law enforcement profession, I find these powerful tools brought together together in this book is an eye to grow from the use of our leading training industry professionals, and filling is critical to the future preparing to service and of those who can better
