Mipes Local Economies In Turmoil:

Social Work Intervention in an Economic Crisis Martha Baum, Pamela Twiss, 2014-03-18 With the collapse of the steel industry in the 1980s economic devastation hit the Pittsburgh Pennsylvania region Social Work Intervention in an Economic Crisis strives to deepen understanding of the impact of the economic tragedy in the Pittsburgh region and to present social workers efforts to enhance recovery This case study serves as a model for social workers human service educators and agency personnel public health professionals community organizers policymakers economic strategists and researchers in social work public health sociology anthropology and political science to design and implement human service interventions for similar communities using techniques of action research community organization and demonstration projects Social Work Intervention in an Economic Crisis shows readers relatively simple and highly effective ways of assessing the social economic situation in their given geographical area This allows professionals to be in touch with their surrounding communities and estimate the clientele to be served their particular needs and their abilities to access services Chapters in Social Work Intervention in an Economic Crisis describe the responses of local institutions the roles of informal and formal support networks and the economic devastation inflicted upon individuals households and whole communities To this end Hide Yamatani Lambert Maguire Robin K Rogers and Mary Lou O Kennedy take the socioeconomic pulse of six communities launching a longitudinal monitoring effort that can be replicated elsewhere for long range planning and intervention Martha Baum Barbara K Shore and Kathy Fleissner address the special problems women face Mary Page and Myrna Silverman focus upon the elderly and their families Phyllis D Coontz Judith A Martin and Edward W Sites look at fathers facing altered childrearing and Lambert Maguire and Hide Yamatani discuss youth facing altered economic opportunities With this knowledge in hand readers acquire skills for using action research to assess how economic tragedy affects people s lives mobilizing appropriate actors to engage in intervention learning from community groups and leaders about their concerns to work with them rather than for them recognizing the properties of community cohesion versus fragmentation as they affect efforts of renewal identifying individuals and families suffering most under economic devastation realizing the limits of micro level intervention generating macro policies at the state and federal levels disseminating findings from action research and intervention demonstration efforts Finally Social Work Intervention in an Economic Crisis offers proposals for new societal mechanisms that might reduce the impact of future recessions The findings and policy proposals set forth in this book help households and institutions deal with the effects of economic change which continue to afflict many families and small communities in the 1990s

The Lena Goldfields Massacre and the Crisis of the Late Tsarist State Michael Melancon, 2006-01-27 In 1912 a thin line of Russian soldiers confronted by a large crowd of gold miners on strike for several weeks reacted with fear and anger At their officers orders they opened fire shooting five hundred unarmed protestors The event reverberated across Russia The Lena goldfields massacre can be viewed from several distinct viewpoints each presenting a contrasting story Author Michael Melancon avoids prematurely picking a right way of looking at the massacre Instead he explores all aspects of the incident from the despair of the miners at the poor conditions they faced to the calculations and priorities of the mining entrepreneurs and state officials and even the rationale of the soldiers who pulled the triggers The Lena Goldfields Massacre and the Crisis of the Late Tsarist State will appeal to anyone interested in labor relations in revolutionary movements and in transitions associated with modernization Its comparative framework will be helpful for generalists and Europeanists It will also provide food for thought for those who seek a carefully researched examination of Russian society during the early twentieth century The Economic Crisis Moreton Frewen,1888

Confronting the Global Forced Migration Crisis Tom Ridge,Gayle Smith,2018-06-22 The size and scope of the global forced migration crisis are unprecedented Almost 66 million people worldwide have been forced from home by conflict If recent trends continue this figure could increase to between 180 and 320 million people by 2030 This global crisis already poses serious challenges to economic growth and risks to stability and national security as well as an enormous human toll affecting tens of millions of people These issues are on track to get worse without significant course correction soon the forced migration issues confronted today will seem simple decades from now Yet efforts to confront the crisis continue to be reactive in addressing these and other core issues The United States should broaden the scope of its efforts beyond the tactical and reactive to see the world through a more strategic lens colored by the challenges posed and opportunities created by the forced migration crisis at home and abroad CSIS convened a diverse task force in 2017 to study the global forced migration crisis This report is a result of those findings Climate Chaos John Hans Gilderbloom,2024-12-15 Featuring insights from influential figures like Pope Francis and Albert Gore alongside contributions from over thirty esteemed authors Climate Chaos Killing People Places and the Planet charts a transformative path from despair to optimism Grounded in rigorous scientific research the book unflinchingly exposes the links between industries such as coal fossil fuels chemical factories liquor tobacco and others and their role in accelerating global warming and mass displacement It courageously challenges climate change denialism advocating for transparency and accountability in addressing these urgent challenges In a time of profound despair this book unites faith and science to forge a path towards a sustainable and livable future Its impact resonates beyond the page inspiring a forthcoming PBS film Transportation During the Next Energy Crisis ,1981 Our Ecological Crisis: Its Biological, Economic, and Political Dimensions Grahame J. C. Smith, Henry J. Steck, Gerald Surette,1974 The Crisis ,1993-11 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens
