Culture in Mind Karen A. Cerulo,2013-05-13 What is thought and how does one come to study and understand it How does the mind work Does cognitive science explain all the mysteries of the brain This collection of fourteen original essays from some of the top sociologists in the country including Eviatar Zerubavel Diane Vaughan Paul DiMaggio and Gary Alan Fine among others opens a dialogue between cognitive science and cultural sociology encouraging a new network of scientific collaboration and stimulating new lines of social scientific research Rather than considering thought as just an individual act Culture in Mind considers it in a social and cultural context Provocatively this suggests that our thoughts do not function in a vacuum our minds are not alone Covering such diverse topics as the nature of evil the process of storytelling defining mental illness and the conceptualizing of the premature baby these essays offer fresh insights into the functioning of the mind Leaving the MRI behind Culture in Mind will uncover the mysteries of how we think Out of the Blue Mark Victor Hansen,1996 Living in delight is possible every day and this inspirational collection can help Delight comes to us from out of the blue in the form of everyday magic and minor epiphanies providing a moment of intuitive understanding that reaches our hearts and touches our souls Explaining how the experience of delight opens us to compassion and spiritual awareness and providing 52 Delight Igniters ways to create happiness and share it with others this book also includes stories by James Michener Deepak Chopra Wayne Dyer and other celebrities who have brought delight to the world Imagining the Miraculous Anna D. Russakoff,2019 This is not a book about miraculous images of the Virgin Mary but rather about their representations in French illuminated manuscripts from ca 1250 to ca 1450 Illustrations such as these point to the ubiquity of local miraculous Marian images in devotional practices from the thirteenth to the fifteenth century in French speaking regions This book examines in systematic fashion a large quantity of images mostly unpublished from the various types of texts devoted to Marian miracles It then analyzes the depiction of their materiality and the animated miracles they perform and traces their evolution from the earliest narratives of Marian miracles written in Old French through to the Burgundian court of the late Middle Ages The Listener ,1987 The New York Times Book Review ,1967 Viator ,1988 Sacred Images and Sacred Power in Byzantium Gary Vikan,2003 In these studies Gary Vikan has opened new perspectives on the daily life and material culture of Late Antiquity more specifically on icons and relics and on objects revealing of the world of pilgrimage the early cult of saints and marriage He contextualizes these familiar categories of object in the patterns of belief and ritual extracted from contemporary texts and the objects themselves in order to understand their meaning within the everyday lives of those by whom and for whom they were made The studies give a nuanced delineation of the inherently ambiguous boundary between conventional religion and magic noting repeatedly those instances wherein the two are invoked in the same breath and by way of the same art object toward the same end From this historically constructed matrix of art belief and ritual the author derives an anthropologically defined paradigm of charisma and pilgrimage applied in one essay as an intriguing parallel to deconstructing the world of a contemporary secular saint Elvis Presley
