Misadventures Of An American Abroad:

Misadventures of an American Abroad Albert E. Tyrrell, 1990-11-01 Despite this book's moral overtones its use should be limited to adults Unfortunately the author was forced to employ some private autobiographical sketches as a defense against a dark pall of misinformation that followed him throughout a 3 month trip around the world Not only does the book reveal the hulking presence of George Orwell's Big Brother throughout the world but it reveals many instances wherein the beast defamed endeavored to assassinate the character of the author an honorable American citizen Aside from intermingled economic moral political issues the book provides colorful travelogues of the lands down under eventually untangles many of the Who Dunits entangled in the dark pall
